With a simple, witty story and free-spirited illustrations, Peter H. Reynolds entices even the stubbornly uncreative among us to make a mark -- and follow where it takes us. Her teacher smiled. "Just make a mark and see where it takes you." Art class is over, but Vashti is sitting glued to her chair in front of a blank piece of paper. The words of her teacher are a gentle invitation to express herself. But Vashti can't draw - she's no artist. To prove her point, Vashti jabs at a blank sheet of paper to make an unremarkable and angry mark. "There!" she says. That one little dot marks the beginning of Vashti's journey of surprise and self-discovery. That special moment is the core of Peter H. Reynolds's delicate fable about the creative spirit in all of us.

The anxiety of waiting for the final picture to appear when solving dot-to-dot activities teaches your child to maintain focus and presence of mind. This, in turn, sharpens your child's mind and make him more receptive to new information. Dot-to-dot activities are fun enough to keep your child interested in them and smart enough to bring about improvements in handwriting, listening and communication skills.

Connect the dots is not just child's play. For adults, it is therapeutic and brain-boosting too! Adults who can connect the dots are known to be forward-thinkers and they have the ability to piece together information to understand the whole picture. When adults connect the dots, they retain information, follow instructions and better their focus too!
