Just fifteen years ago, “ pet sitter ” meant the kid down the street who helped feed pets when the neighbors traveled. Today, this fledgling field is fast becoming an established profession. Combining the appeal of working with animals, a viable customer base, and truly low start-up costs, it is for many people the ideal home-based business. And yet its “ fun ” aspects are often overshadowed by the daunting tasks of registering the business, purchasing insurance, and knowing what first steps to take and how to continue from there. With a simple, step-by-step format, How to Start a Home-Based Pet Sitting Business guides aspiring pet sitters from the dreaming stage to the doing stage more clearly and comprehensively than any such book to date.

Let Barb Schwarz—the creator of the Home Staging concept—show you what it takes to make it in the Home Staging industry. In 1972, Barb Schwarz coined the term "Staging" to refer to the process of preparing a home for sale, and turned her idea into a brand new industry. Today, thanks to Schwarz's pioneering efforts, Home Staging has become a big business with enormous profit potential. If you are thinking about starting a Home Staging business of your

This book looks at the basics of starting a home business. Many people think making running a business at home is difficult and do not dare to try. Well, running a business online is possible. Why is running a business online better than any other J.O.B.? Having a home business is completely different from all other jobs or money making opportunities. There are several reasons for this, but the top reasons are the following: 1) The internet is worldwide. 2) The internet never closes. 3) Running an online business requires one employee (YOU). Imagine having a business that was within walking distance of everyone in the world.closes and it makes sales for you without you or anyone else having to be there. This means you will
