Part 2 of 2 Today we are releasing Version 2 of the CFPB Supervision and Examination Manual, the guide our examiners use in overseeing companies that provide consumer financial products and services. Our manual, originally released in October 2011, describes how the CFPB supervises and examines these providers and gives our examiners direction on how to determine if companies are complying with consumer financial protection laws. We updated the supervision manual to reflect the renumbering of the consumer financial protection regulations for which the CFPB is responsible. The numbering conventions in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) allow the reader to easily identify which regulations fall under a particular agency's responsibility. The renumbering incorporated throughout the manual reflects the Dodd-Frank Act of 2010 transfer of rulemaking responsibility for many consumer financial protection regulations from other Federal agencies to the CFPB. In December 2011, the CFPB published its renumbered regulations in the Federal Register. The renumbered regulations also included certain technical changes but no substantive changes. The CFPB's renumbering reflects the codification of its regulations in Title 12 (Banks and Banking), Chapter X (Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection) of the CFR. For example, before July 21, 2011, the Federal Reserve had rulemaking authority for the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, which was codified in Title 12, Chapter II (Federal Reserve System), Part 203. The CFPB's implementing regulation for the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act is now codified in Title 12, Chapter X, Part 1003.

Having a low credit score can be very expensive and cause you to miss out on opportunities. In my case, I was trying to refinance my $300,000 mortgage. My credit score was 620 because I had some negative items on my credit that I wasn't aware of, and extra debt on my credit cards that I could not afford to pay off. I was quoted an interest rate of 6.25% because of my low credit score. Instead of taking the loan, I repaired my credit by removing the incorrect items and paid down some of the debt on my credit cards. I waited a month, and my credit score jumped to 725. I reapplied for the loan and got a quote of 4.5%. If you have one mortgage, buy 3 cars over the 30 year period, and carry $10,000 credit card debt over the 30 year period, you will spend an extra $238,500 on additional interest, or another way to look at it, you will throw away $238,500 to have the same things had you not maintained a healthy credit history and score. If you need to increase your credit score to move into a new apartment, house, buy a car, or get loans for business. This book has a complete game plan on how to get started and get the end results you're looking for. If you're in a bind and need quick results, this book will show you how to increase your credit score in hours! Located just east of downtown Louisville, Butchertown is a fascinating mix of architectural styles, businesses, and history. The neighborhood is named for the early Louisville butchers who found the area's strategic location on Beargrass Creek and its proximity to the Frankfort and Shelbyville turnpikes ideal for their operations. The link to butchers was further solidified when the Bourbon House, later called the Bourbon Stock Yard, was established in 1834, anchoring Butchertown as Louisville's meatpacking neighborhood. Many points of interest can be found amid the predominantly brick historic homes, including the Last Chance Saloon, the Oertel Brewery, and the Thomas Edison House Museum. Discover Vernon Lanes, one of the four oldest bowling alleys in the country, which has been in operation since 1886 on Story Avenue. Some photographs illustrate the immense damage done by floodwaters in 1937 and 1945. Also pictured are a floodwall built as a result of the 1937 flood and interstate construction during the 1960s, both of which greatly altered the character of the neighborhood.
