It's pitch dark on the way to Odlaw's haunted castle -- but Waldo-seekers have a cool wand to light the way in a book perfect for the spooky season. Somewhere in the darkness, Waldo is venturing across a swamp toward a looming castle, sneaking down to the dungeon and through a creepy gallery to . . . Hey! We didn't see that twist coming! Everyone's favorite vagabond is in costume as himself in this Halloween-worthy challenge for eagle-eyed fans. One day at her dad's house, a young girl finds two old potatoes in the cupboard. "Gross."

But before she can throw them away, her dad suggests they try to grow new potatoes from the old ones, which have sprouted eyes. Told from May to September, the potato-growing season, the story includes all the basic steps for growing potatoes while subtly dealing with the parents' recent divorce. Just like the new potatoes that emerged from ugly old potatoes, this dad and daughter move on and make a new life together in the face of unavoidable and unpleasant change. Carolyn Fisher's artwork will be instantly recognizable from her recent picture book debut, A Twisted Tale, and her trademark high-energy art and design infuse joy and humor into this heartwarming story. The reader follows Waldo as he hikes around the world and must try to find him in the illustrations of some of the crowded places he visits, including the past, fantasy worlds, movie sets, and famous works of art.
