

Acrylics For The Absolute Beginner

A comprehensive, accessible course in landscape painting with acrylics from a seasoned artist and teacher. Author Charles Evans's no-nonsense techniques and engaging writing style bring acrylic painting within the grasp of anyone keen to dive into this versatile and popular medium. The book begins with excellent advice for the beginner, including easy drawing for painting, composition, easy perspective, light and shade, color, and how to use acrylics with different painting styles. There are six full step-by-step painting projects ranging from simple skies to snowy landscapes with horses, each of which is supported by additional exercises and techniques. The step-by-step projects allow aspiring artists to put into practice their new-found skills, and produce six stunning paintings of their own, in a range of styles. A pull-out outline drawing is provided for every project, and Charles shows how to transfer these onto the painting surface. Charles's irreverent style makes learning to paint with acrylics easy and fun.

Charles Evans explores the potential of the exciting, accessible System 3 range of inks and acrylics. The System 3 brand is a well-established brand of inks, acrylics and heavy body paints manufactured by Daler-Rowney. System 3 is readily available worldwide, including the US and UK, and is economically priced, making it affordable by students as well as amateur artists. Painting with System 3 Inks and Acrylics aims to inspire, instruct and encourage an experimental approach to painting with this versatile range of media, taking it out of the classroom and into the field. Daler-Rowney ambassador Charles Evans teaches the reader about the variety of products in the range and explores creative and innovative ways of using - and combining - the inks and paints on different supports, including watercolour paper, canvas and wood. The book takes a highly practical approach to introducing the potential of the System 3 range, with numerous exercises and 13 step-by-step projects to help the reader carry forward the skills they have acquired. Charles also features his own artwork using the media, as further inspiration on what can be achieved with System 3.

Now is the time to pursue creative fulfillment! Annie O'Brien Gonzales felt a passion for art from an early age. But not until 30 years later--after raising a family and working "a real job"--did she get serious about painting. Along the way, she experienced the pleasures and the pitfalls of learning to paint. In these pages, she channels it all to help others discover (or re-discover) The Joy of Acrylic Painting. This guide offers an engaging, streamlined approach for any beginner, but especially those who--due to life detours or lack of time--had previously postponed their artistic aspirations. In a fun, instantly gratifying style, Gonzales combines the forgiveness of acrylics with the approachability of expressive painting. With special emphasis on the elements of color, pattern and texture, these lessons give you a jump-start on painting with feeling. If now is your time to pursue creative fulfillment, then this is the book to ease your way. □ Strategies for gathering resonant ideas and inspiration □ Practical advice, such as when to splurge and where to save on painting supplies □ Mixed-media techniques for creating character in your paintings □ Inspiration from Expressionist masters, including ways to use their work as a jumping-off point for your own original paintings □ PLUS 8 fabulous start-to-finish painting projects--landscapes, still life, figures and abstracts
