If you were to ask a random user of the Internet what he or she thought Affiliate Marketing was: he or she would likely claim that it was a way of making money online as an intermediary. Here, people make a commission from a sale or a referral when a visitor to his or her site clicks on a link that directs him or her to a product or page online. However, as much as there is a lot of truth there, Affiliate Marketing does not only have to take place online. For example, affiliate marketing is also where a plumber gives a client a discount for referring him or her to a new client. It is the same concept. This kind of marketing happens a lot in the real world, but people do not trace or coordinate it as much as is the case with online marketing. Business owners can ask their customers how they came to know about them in an effort to learn about their client base, but they cannot get as much information as they would be using online tracking. The growing online market has made this type of marketing more popular and profitable. It has also made it easier to grow and expand whatever type of business an individual is in with the help of numerous professional marketers who will not necessarily appear on their payroll. Therefore, while its history started long before the invention of the Internet, the Internet has transformed it and made it widely available to the masses. You will start by learning all about the ins and outs of affiliate marketing and what you need to get your feet wet in the marketing world. You will then learn about the importance of choosing the right niche and how to find one that will provide you with a sustainable passive income stream for years to come. From there, you will learn the key steps to creating a website that will attract the right type of users as well as the importance of SEO and how to ensure that your new website shows up in as many different sets of search results as possible. Finally, you will learn just what it takes to create the type of quality content that ensures people keeping back for more month after month and year after year. Every effort was made to ensure it is full of as much useful information as possible, please enjoy! Affiliate marketing is a highly profitable online advertising method in which Web site merchants pay independent third parties to promote the products or services of an advertiser on their Web site. In other words, affiliate marketing involves posting a company's banner on your Web site or blog and attempting to send visitors to their Web site. If someone clicks on that banner or goes to that site and buys something, you will be paid a commission. Affiliate marketing is now viewed as a key component of a company's online marketing strategy. In this new book you will learn how to master the art and science behind affiliate marketing. The keys to success in affiliate marketing are knowing what you are doing, devising a comprehensive and well-crafted advertising plan, and knowing the relationships between your Web site, search engines, PPC advertising, and campaign methodology. This exhaustively researched new book will provide everything you need to know to get you started.--From publisher description.

What is the life of an average corporate employee like? It's a mind-boggling monotonous routine. As the decades pass, you can almost feel yourself turning into a robot: wake up, go to work, behave like a robot, come back home; next day, repeat! If you are that person, you must occasionally wonder to yourself whether there's an alternative. Could there be something else out there that you could put your time into and make money and at the same time liberate yourself? Maybe you have thought about opening a business in your city. But then you need capital, and you could end up putting in more hours than you thought, and worse still, make a loss. If there's one business opportunity that suits people who are stuck in a rut (and anyone else who loves money and freedom) is affiliate marketing. This concept became popular thanks to pioneer internet businesses like amazon. As an affiliate marketer, you promote products and services that belong to other people, but you are entitled to a commission for every agreed upon action that you fulfill. Maybe it is getting people to buy a product, or generating leads, or getting people to install a software on their devices, etc. One of the best things about starting an affiliate marketing business is that the entry barrier is so low that you almost need nothing to get started. With as little as $100, you can buy a domain name, a hosting plan, and various other key website building tools. Also, an affiliate marketing business doesn't require you to attend to it 24/7 like most other businesses would require. You only have to come up with a schedule and everyday fulfill your role and your business slowly takes off, and once it's big enough, you can afford to hand in a resignation letter to your boss with a grateful smile. But then don't be fooled. There are many false preachers out there who make people think that affiliate marketing is akin to a get-rich-quick scheme. It's not. Just like any other thing worth achieving, it takes tremendous effort and discipline to become a successful affiliate marketer. You must put in the work, especially in the early days, so that you may afford to set up a system that brings you profits on auto pilot.
