Maiz comes up amarillo, the blue-black of dreams washes over sandy shores, and people's skin can be the shade of cinnamon in cocoa or of mahogany. This exuberantly colorful, softly rhyming picture book is a gentle reminder that a nation's hues are as wide as nature itself. "His Green Eyes" by Cheyenne Bluett takes the reader on a heartfelt journey of true love. Through soulful poetic storytelling, this poetess connects hopeful romantics to a type of love that knows no bounds. Page by page, each reader is given the

So, she does what any normal, completely rational 28-year-old would do - she moves to a new city with her dog to start a new life. Without much of a plan, it turns out. Kendall O'Hara doesn't enjoy chaos - at 42-years-old, she has a stable job and two cats she likes more than most people. Okay, all people. She likes routine (and yelling the correct Jeopardy answers right before the contestants do). She's not boring. She's just protecting her still-healing heart decades later. When Joey and Kendall's paths cross, a rocky start with an accidental laundry switch turns into an unlikely friendship. Morning finally arrived and Henry awoke to the sunlight beaming through the living room window.
