Un libro franco que trata de las relaciones íntimas entre esposo y esposa. Dice el autor, "Escribo con la ayuda de mis esposa Bevery ... Ambos hemos aconsejado, juntos, a bastantes parejas de casados y hemos llegado al convencimiento de que una gran mayoría no llega al goce sexual que Dios puso como una de las bendiciones del matrimonio..." Un libro recomendado para novios que van a contraer matrimonio y matrimonios noveles.

Since the "cultural turn" in the 1990s, increasing attention has been paid to ideological concerns and gender issues in relation to translation studies. This volume is a further illustration of this intersection of translation theory and practice with ideological constraints and gender issues in a variety of cross-cultural, geographical and historical contexts. The book is divided into three parts: Part I, health sciences, examining gender bias in medical textbooks, and the language and sociocultural barriers involved in obtaining health services in Morocco. The second part addresses the interaction of gender and the construction of the female image both in diverse narrative texts and the presence of women in the translation of poetic works in Franco's Spain. Finally, Part III, and translator ethics in relation to feminist writing or translation in the context of Europe with special reference to Italy, and in the world of magazines aimed at a female readership.
