

Art Of Prayer By Kenneth Hagin

This dynamic study guide gives convincing scriptural proof that it is God's will to heal!

The infilling of the New Testament believers with the Holy Ghost should be our pattern today. I propose that we look at the Acts of the Apostles, see how they did it, and follow their example in getting people filled with the Holy Ghost.

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit and watching in this with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints. - Ephesians 6:18

The sin of prayerlessness as one of the deepest roots of the evil. Few can plead themselves free from this. Nothing so reveals the defective spiritual life in a pastor and the congregation as the lack of believing and unceasing prayer. Prayer is indeed the very pulse of the spiritual life. It is the great means of bringing to a pastor and the people the blessing and power of heaven.

Persevering and believing prayer means a strong and abundant spiritual life. Chapters included in this book... The Sin of Prayerlessness How to Be Delivered from Prayerlessness The Blessing of Victory The Example of Our Lord The Holy Spirit and Prayer The Holiness of God Obedience and the Victorious Life Time in Inner Chamber Taking Up the Cross The Holy Spirit and the Cross This is a guide for praying Scripture back to God, organized into three months of daily prayers; each day the reader is guided through eight different kinds of prayer, such as adoration, confession, renewal, petition, intercession, affirmation, thanksgiving, and a closing prayer, all translated and adopted for personal prayer by Dr. Kenneth Boa.

If God demands that we have faith when it is impossible for us to have faith, then we have a right to challenge His justice. These principles will enable you to please God and live victoriously in this life Chapter titles include: -- What Faith Is -- How Faith Comes -- How To Turn Your Faith Loose -- What It Means To Believe With the Heart -- Six Big Hindrances to Faith -- The God-Kind of Faith Many 21st Century Christians have excused themselves from the Biblical mandate to engage in effectual prayer and meditation. God is unlimited, yet He chooses to demonstrate His power through prayer. Prayer Force is a call to the believer for greater intimacy and communion with God. Prayer is not a magic wand. Perhaps the chief reason believers do not pray consistently is because they do not see their prayers answered. Without Gods prerequisites, prayer remains unanswered. Misconceptions regarding prayer must be dispelled with the foundational Biblical descriptions. Priorities dictate schedules and schedules reveal priorities. If prayer is not a priority in action, it is not a priority at all. A look at Gods view from Scripture and mens view from life, combine to make this book a dynamic propeller to fight the good fight on our knees. Pastor Kenneth J. Don't Blame God written by Kenneth E. Hagin.

The modern chasm between "secular" work and "sacred" worship has had a devastating impact on Western Christianity. Drawing on years of research, ministry, and leadership experience, Kaemingk and Willson explain why Sunday morning worship and Monday morning work desperately need to inform and impact one another. Together they engage in a rich biblical, theological, and historical exploration of the deep and life-giving connections between labor and liturgy. In so doing, Kaemingk and Willson offer new ways in which Christian communities can live seamless lives of work and worship.

When Jesus taught His disciples how to pray, did He intend for them to merely recite His prayer on a daily basis? Or did He intend for them to live it? In his book, The Prayer of Jesus: Living the Lord's Prayer, Dr. Ken Hemphill says, "The Lord's Prayer continues to amaze me, not only because I missed the point for so long, but also because I now realize that it places me right on the cutting edge of kingdom living all day, every day." Do you want to live a worry-free life? Would you like to live a kingdom adventure every day? This study will teach you that everywhere you go and everything you do has kingdom implications, including the car wash, the cleaners, the carpool, or the airport. This six-week study includes an introduction and five weeks of study. The Leader Kit videos feature an outreach/broadcast promo, an introductory message, and five sessions of teaching by Dr. Hemphill. A Leader Guide is provided at the back of the book.

This book contains scriptures about healing, a commentary by Brother Hagin, and a real-life illustration about a woman who diligently took God's medicine--His Word--and was raised from her deathbed, miraculously healed of an incurable disease.

A pioneer in his radical approach to politics and prayer, internationally known theologian and activist Kenneth Leech has for half a century influenced religious leaders on both sides of the Atlantic. This essential reference text brings together his writings on prayer, contextual theology, and social justice in one wide-ranging volume. This selection of writings illustrates how theology can inform prayer and action in a local context, plus highlights wider themes such as globalization and inter-faith collaboration.

Secondary goals were to present materials from both British and North American perspectives. The key criteria in selecting material were continuing relevance, popular appeal, and readability. The book is organized by theme, including: FIRST PRINCIPLES — illustrating how his revolutionary political convictions arose from Trinitarian orthodoxy. THE VISIBLE CHURCH — focusing on the Anglican denomination, and on reaction and renewal of the Catholic tradition. MINISTRY ON THE MARGINS — highlighting Leech's work in various aspects of ministry, especially with respect to anti-racism, drugs, homelessness, and young people. SPIRITUAL THEOLOGY — containing his reflections about prayer and worship, noting particularly the indivisibility of spirituality and social justice. PILGRIM JOURNEY — including people and places that have influenced Leech and personal reflections about discipleship and ministry.

In this outline Kenneth E. Hagin says",He leads the believer into a knowledge of intercessions, encour-aging him to experience all that God has for him in this area". The Word to become keen intercessors

The Story of God with Us is a fully illustrated book that tracks through the Bible following the primary storyline of God's relentless pursuit to be with his people. The story moves from Genesis all the way to Revelation by featuring various mountains that appear throughout the Bible.

With searing wit and incisive commentary, John Kenneth Galbraith redefined America's perception of itself in The New Industrial State, one of his landmark works. The United States is no longer a free-enterprise society, Galbraith argues, but a structured state controlled by the largest companies. Advertising is the means by which these companies manage demand and create consumer "need" where none previously existed. Multinational corporations are the continuation of this power system on an international level. The goal of these companies is not the betterment of society, but immortality through an uninterrupted stream of earnings. First published in 1967, The New Industrial State continues to resonate today. By acting on the biblical truths contained in this popular book, believers can turn around seemingly impossible situations just by walking in the God-kind of love! A bold recasting of prayer as a rhetorical art, Spiritual Modalities investigates situations, strategies, and performative modes of discourse directed to divine audiences. Examining how prayer "works," Spiritual Modalities reads prayer's situations and strategies, its characteristic acts and attitudes, to advance an understanding of prayer as a basic expression of our rhetorical capacities for communication and communion. This groundbreaking analysis demonstrates how prayer draws on fundamental capacities to engage other beings rhetorically to argue that we are never more human than when we address the nonhuman. Spiritual Modalities is notable in its aim to articulate a critical rhetoric of prayer in a secular idiom. It draws on contributions to rhetorical theory from Kenneth Burke along with a broad range of classical and contemporary perspectives on audience, address, speech acts, and modes of performance. The book also takes a multicultural and multimodal approach to prayer as rhetorical performance. The texts and practices of prayer represented range across religious traditions and historical eras and include both verbal and physical modes of divine address. The book will be of interest to scholars researching religious language, Burkean approaches to discourse, practices of memory, and media studies.

The Prayer of Jesus

Why Tongues?

This study guide will instruct believers on how to use the Word in prayer and get results.

Kenneth E. Hagin shows the believer how to get prayers answered. Effective praying, he explains is the result of following certain Biblical principles he outlines in this book.

The Name of Jesus. It's known to people everywhere. Some revere it. Others use it as an oath. For Christians, it identifies who they are. The Bible says that all Heaven, earth, and hell respond to the Name of Jesus.

An Invitation to Christian Spirituality

Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin's newest book, The Triumphant Church: Dominion Over All the Powers of Darkness is a comprehensive biblical study on the subject of demonology. Rev. Hagin builds a thorough study from the Scriptures on the origins of Lucifer and how Satan became the god of this world. Rev. Hagin shows the difference between oppression, obsession, and possession and discusses various ways believers can give Satan access in their lives. The Triumphant Church will show you how to enforce Satan's defeat in your life so you can live in the victory God intended for every believer. No longer will you have to try to "battle" to a place of victory once you understand the authority that is yours in Jesus Christ. As a believer, you are seated in heavenly places in Christ far above all powers and principalities now. So if you're not looking down on the devil, you're not high enough! Come on up and sit in heavenly places in Christ where you belong. Learn how to take your place in Christ as the triumphant Church- which is always a position of victory! If we're honest, most of us feel bored, distracted, or discouraged in prayer. We look for resources to give us the "right" words or teach us the "right" technique and are disappointed when they don't seem to help. What we fail to realize is that prayer isn't a place for us to be good or right, and it isn't a place for us to perform or prove our worth. It's a place for us to be honest, present, and known--a place for us to offer ourselves and receive God. Spiritual formation experts Kyle Strobel and John Coe want to show you what you've been missing when it comes to prayer. In this down-to-earth book, they show you how to fearlessly draw near to a holy God, pray without ceasing (and without posturing), and delight in the experience of being fully known and fully loved. Each chapter ends with prayer projects or practices to help you see a difference in your prayer life, starting now.

Every day of the year, this daily prayer companion leads you through simple but life-changing prayers drawn directly from the Bible.

"We do not create prayer," writes Kenneth Leech, "but merely prepare the ground and clear away obstacles. Prayer is always a gift, a grace, the flame which ignites wood; the Holy Spirit gives prayer."
