

Benny Hinn The Anointing

In the international bestseller Good Morning, Holy Spirit, Benny Hinn introduced readers to the person of the Holy Spirit and told them how to experience His presence. Now he introduces them to the work of the Holy Spirit in the world today, allowing them to trust God more and take bold faith steps.

Providing readers with a firm foundation of biblical truth regarding the five integral aspects of a relationship with God--Holy Spirit, Healing, Prayer, Presence of God, and Faith--this large print Bible is filled with verses and passages related to these five key themes, highlighted by the easy-to-navigate color-coded system. Hardcover.

You are not limited to your own human abilities. This book will answer all of your questions about the anointing. It will prepare you to experience the precious touch of God on everything you do. How can some ministers whose personal and spiritual lives are dried up and in shambles still operate in the anointing and continue to minister with power? Pastor Benny Hinn asked this question during a season of personal trial, and his quest led him to an in-depth understanding of the three “rivers,” or types, of anointing in Scripture: 1 John 2:27 (the anointing within you); Acts 1:8 (the anointing upon you); and Isaiah 10 (a global anointing related to building up and destroying nations). In Mysteries of the Anointing, Hinn explores these three types of anointing, sharing personal stories of things he learned firsthand from Kathryn Kuhlman and Oral Roberts, as well as providing biblical and historical examples that illustrate his teachings. Readers will discover: How to detect if the anointing within you is weakening or gone The blessings—and dangers—that can happen when God begins to use you When you’re most vulnerable to demonic attack and what to do about it What hinders the anointing in your life and ministry and what increases it The impact of the anointing around the world and how the church

Nearly two decades ago Hank Hanegraaff's award-winning Christianity in Crisis alerted the world to the dangers of a cultic movement within Christianity that threatened to undermine the very foundation of biblical faith. But in the 21st century, there are new dangers—new teachers who threaten to do more damage than the last. These are not obscure teachers that Hanegraaff unmasks. We know their names. We have seen their faces, sat in their churches, and heard them shamelessly preach and promote the false pretexts of a give-to-get gospel. They are virtual rock stars who command the attention of presidential candidates and media moguls. Through make-believe miracles, urban legends, counterfeit Christs, and twisted theological reasoning, they peddle an occult brand of metaphysics that continues to shipwreck the faith of millions around the globe: "God cannot do anything in this earthly realm unless we give Him permission." "Keep saying it—I have equality with God—talk yourself into it." "Being poor is a sin." "The Jews were not rejecting Jesus as Messiah; it was Jesus who was refusing to be the Messiah to the Jews!" "You create your own world the same way God creates His. He speaks, and things happen; you speak, and they happen." Christianity in Crisis:

From the Preface: “Having lost the ability to think biblically, postmodern Christians are being transformed from cultural change agents and initiators into cultural conformists and imitators. Pop culture beckons, and postmodern Christians have taken the bait. As a result, the biblical model of faith has given way to an increasingly bizarre array of fads and formulas.”

There is a dimension in the spirit where certain possibilities happen. All possibilities do not happen at all dimensions. This is one of the mistakes that many people do not understand. The speaking of God is prophetic in context. So you will think it is valid for all dimensions? No. No. The Bible says who shall I send to the hill of the Lord? There has to be more, there is a mandate upon our generation and we must demonstrate the reality of all that we propose to men from scripture. You are not going to meet me worshipping Budha and having the same level of result that people want and you come and threatening me with hellfire and then you tell me to stop worshipping Budha and then I said OK, but while I was walking with Budha I have the opportunity to manipulate favor in my direction, I could do something in my room that will create an effect in my office and now you have told me to get back again and I sit down and am a victim of vicissitudes of life, and I asked you, is there no strategy in the kingdom that gives me an advantage? then you are quick to tell me there is, but I never work in that experience then why won't I think it is a lie? Bible said since I was young and now I am old, I have never seen the righteous forsaken nor beg for bread, it was not a song but a man's testimony who was full of strategy in the spirit and if you do not assume that in the spirit or have that sp
