This essay sheds light on how to make money as a full time blogger, how blogging can become extremely profitable overtime, and how blogging can generate multiple passive income streams. Pursuing a career as a full time blogger can culminate in evolving your daily blogs into an eminently profitable blogging brand overtime as the blog builds more traction. There are a myriad of ways for bloggers to monetize their products. First and foremost, bloggers can earn advertisement revenue by generating this income per advertisement impression or per advertisement click on their blog. Advertisements can be embedded onto the sidebar, header, footer, and even in the text of their blog posts. Some of the myriad of popular advertisement networks that bloggers can join encompass AdSense, Sovrn, and Mediavine. These advertisement networks allow them to cherry pick the types of advertisements that the blogger wants to display on their blog. Even though CPMs and RPMs may be low as a result of a preponderance of readers enabling an AdBlocker extension in their browsers, one of the ways to compensate for this issue is to generate revenue from multiple passive income streams while creating a blog that offers so much merit that it is preordained to organically grow overtime to an unprecedented level.

Bloggers can capitalize on affiliate marketing opportunities to provide them with additional streams of income. The blogger can leverage their blogs to provide their readership with recommendations of products, services, and websites. There are a myriad of ways to earn money though capitalizing on affiliate marketing opportunities since affiliate programs have a variety of payment options. Some affiliate programs pay per click (PPC) which means you can make money by redirecting your audience to the advertiser's website. On the other hand, other affiliate programs offer pay per lead (PPL) which entails earning money when your audience that has been redirected to the advertiser's website relinquishes their contact information on the advertiser's website. The most common payment option for affiliates is pay per sale (PPS) which culminates in affiliates earning revenue from commissions each time the advertiser generates sales from the affiliate's referrals. Prospective affiliates should join top affiliate marketing programs and should cherry pick the most in demand products to promote to optimize their chances for success and maximize their affiliate conversion rate and affiliate sales rate. An affiliate conversion rate above 2% denotes digital marketing shrewdness. Some affiliate programs include ShareASale, Amazon Associates, and eBay partners. By promoting products from reputable and trusted platforms, such as Amazon and eBay, it will likely culminate in higher affiliate sales rates since the prospective buyers are not dubious about the trusted websites. Another revenue stream bloggers can capitalize on growing is derived from creating paid sponsored posts. Bloggers that have a sizeable audience as influencers can secure sponsorship deals and subsequently create paid sponsored posts to promote a product or service. Sponsored networks specialize in providing job opportunities for bloggers with clout to secure deals with sponsoring brands. Bloggers can join a sponsored network, such as SoapBox Influence or Pollinate network, to avail themselves of lucrative sponsored job opportunities to create paid sponsored content on behalf of other brands. By providing value upfront without asking for anything in return from the audience, the blogger can quickly earn the trust of their readership and likely begin monetizing their blog within a 6 month period. Bloggers should also understand the best search engine optimization (SEO) practices so that their content can be ranked high in Google's search engine.
