Chronicle your travels and detail your camping experiences with the RV Camping Journal that covers the United States and Canada. Don't know where to begin? Don't worry, this 8.5" x 11" logbook contains two pages with prompts for each trip and campsite. On the left-hand page, you'll note campground specifics related to amenities, address, and more.

Then you'll fill the right-hand page with personal details including your actual arrival and departure date, wildlife you encountered, and people you met. When the book is open, you'll see all of the details of your campground adventure at a glance on the two-page spread. The 106 campground logging pages will allow you to record the details of 53 camping trips. You can literally move to a new campsite every week and still not fill the book in a year. In short, you'll log your memories as you log the miles. See where you've been at a glance. The title page in this book looks like the cover but is shown in black and white on purpose. Pick up some markers, crayons or colored pencils and color in the States and Provinces that you've visited. The map covers the contiguous United States and Canada. Your partially-colored title page will serve as a visual representation of where you've been and where you still can look forward to exploring in North America. We wish you many beautiful adventures on the open road.
