

Charlie And Lola I Am Too Absolutely Small For School

It's Field Day at Charlie and Lola's school and each student is allowed to choose one activity in which to participate. Charlie, Marv, and Lotta all quickly find activities that they're good at, but Lola struggles to find one to suit her. Lola eventually chooses the egg-and-spoon race and succeeds at it by really, really concentrating.

Lola is excited because she is going to spend the afternoon with Morten, the little brother of Charlie's best friend. Lola has planned out the entire afternoon with fun, but her hopes are dashed when she discovers that Morten is so shy he won't even speak! Lola tries everything she can think of to get Morten to break out of his shell, but nothing does the trick. How will Lola and Morten have fun?

Charlie has this little sister Lola. She is practising the egg-and-spoonrace for Sports Day. Lola says, 'It's too hard, Charlie. I'm never going to get the egg to stay on my spoon.' Charlie says, 'You will, Lola! You just have to concentrate!'

An enhanced read-along audio ebook from Ladybird. Friends Charlie and Marv are trying to invent a new invention for a school project - but it's harder than it looks! Lola, Charlie's little sister, can come up with some ideas... Read it yourself with Ladybird is one of Ladybird's best-selling series. For over thirty five years it has helped millions of children who are learning to read develop and improve their reading skills. Each Read it yourself book is very carefully written to include many key, high-frequency words that are vital for learning to read, as well as a limited number of story words that are introduced and practised throughout. Simple sentences and frequently repeated words help to build the confidence of beginner readers and the four different levels of books support children all the way from very first reading practice through to independent, fluent reading. This book has been carefully checked by educational consultants and can be read independently at home or used in a guided reading session at school. Charlie and Lola: I Am Inventing an Invention is a Level 4 Read it yourself title, ideal for children who are ready to read longer stories with a wider vocabulary and are keen to read independently.

Absolutely One Thing

Charlie Is Broken!

I Am Not Sleepy and I Will Not Go to Bed

Featuring Charlie and Lola

When Charlie insists that his little sister, Lola, leave him and his friend Marv alone to play, she agrees but soon she and her invisible friend, Soren Lorensen, must come to the boys' rescue.

Lola has a favorite alligator costume that she wants to wear absolutely everywhere. Charlie tells her she can't wear it ALL the time, but Lola argues that she can. Much to Charlie's embarrassment, Lola wears her alligator costume to the supermarket and the park. She even plans to wear it for her school talk called "All about Me!" Can Charlie stop Lola from making a fool of herself in front of the whole school?

Charlie and Marv have to create an invention for school. But it's due tomorrow! Lola thinks she is an amazing inventor, and she keeps pestering Charlie and Marv with her ideas. But just as the boys are about to give up, Lola has a brilliant idea that saves the day!

Charlie helps Lola get ready for bed, despite the tigers, whales, and other animals that serve as obstacles, in a pop-up version of a delightful story. 25,000 first printing.

But Excuse Me That Is My Book

We are Extremely Very Good Recyclers

I'm Just Not Keen on Spiders

I Slightly Want to Go Home

Lola wants to buy Lotta a special birthday present and thinks up all sorts of imaginative gifts, like a musical jump rope or wings so Lotta can fly. After Charlie reminds Lola that a good present is one Lotta can actually use and that actually exists, Lola settles on buying a doctor's kit. Trouble is, now Lola wants the present for herself!

Convinced by Charlie to recycle her old toys, Lola becomes inspired and joins a recycling competition, but time is limited, so she turns to her classmates in order to get the one hundred recyclable items she needs to complete her task.

At first, Lola does not want her wobbly tooth to ever fall out, but when she learns about the tooth fairy, she wiggles and wobbles her tooth until out it pops! Finally it is time to go to bed—but the tooth has disappeared! Now how will Lola convince the tooth fairy that she really did lose her tooth? Big brother Charlie has just the answer—if Lola has dreams so lovely that she smiles while she sleeps, the tooth fairy will be able to see for herself!

Lola always always always has to win! No matter what games she and Charlie play, Lola always triumphs. What will happen when Charlie devises a strategy for a game that surely he will win? When playtime is through, Charlie and Lola have learned that maybe having the upper hand isn't as important as lending a hand when a brother or a sister could use a little help.
