A Christmas Cantata for Mixed Chorus with Solos for Medium Voice. Piano-vocal Score

A cumulative list of works represented by Library of Congress printed cards. Christmas Cantata is a 100-minute-long oratorio—a fusion of choral pop, R&B gospel, jazz, and lounge music, with hints of plainsong, Renaissance opera, and Bollywood—all in the great tradition of Western oratorio. It's great for schools, churches, and choral groups, any time from Advent to Candlemas. It sings the story of the birth of Jesus, from the eternal pre-existence of the Logos, through the annunciation, the incarnation, the shepherds and magi, the presentation in the temple, the slaughter of the innocents, the proclamation of the gospel, to the coming messianic kingdom. It's all about voices: choruses, solos, duets, trios, quartets, octets, recitatives. You need a chorus who will stick to the notes, and soprano and baritone soloists, who can be a bit freer in their delivery. The singers are backed by a continuo trio of piano, bass, and drums. You can do a great performance with just these instruments, and a flute or trumpet. No musicians? No problem! You'll love the Backing Tracks! But, if you want to go to town, there are Parts for Orchestra too!

language is a fusion of choral pop, jazz, and lounge music, with shades of plainsong, Renaissance opera, and Persian classical music. Though intentionally popular in idiom, it stands consciously in the great tradition of western European sacred oratorio. It's all about voices: choruses, solos, duets, trios, quartets, octets, recitatives. It needs a good, keen chorus who can sing the notes, and soloists who can be a little freer in their delivery. The singers are supported by a continuo trio of piano, bass, and drums. You can put on a great performance with just these three instruments, with maybe a flute or trumpet as well. town, there are parts for orchestra too...

Vaughan Williams' setting of three traditional English carols, "The Truth sent from Above, Come All You Worthy Gentlemen," and "On Christmas Night all Christians Sing" was composed in 1912. The premiere was given under the composer's direction on September 12 of that year at the Three Choirs Festival in Hereford Cathedral.

This new edition of the vocal score by Richard Sargeant has been prepared with chorus' needs in mind. The layout is music improved over the original 1912 score, with the vocal staves at full size while the piano reduction is produced in

A topical musical featuring a team of "Greys" led by "Major Threat" who are out to destroy the Earth and a team of "Greens" who fight to save our planet from disaster. Presented in an amusing way, this show is an ideal way of effectively putting across the "green" issue in schools. For ages 7-11.
