This manuscript follows some of the life and a good proportion of the competition history of Geoff Portman. A two time Australian Rally Champion, Geoff has been a hero to countless adoring Australian rally fanatics. He was seen as the driver who, in the late part of the 1970's exposed the myth and showed us that there actually was a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow - which in Geoff's case was the elusive "works drive". Through the application of his prodigious talent and skill behind the wheel? his determination to succeed? his ability to build and develop a team around him with like goals and his never say die attitude to both driving a rally car and to life itself - and with no money he demonstrated that even against all the odds, his goals were able to be achieved.

Five bank robberies.

Fifteen years in jail.

That was the sentence handed down to Allan Heyl in 1977. He was twenty-six years old and couldn't face that many years behind bars. By the time André Stander, ex-police captain and convicted bank robber, arrived at the prison, Heyl was well advanced with his plan to escape. The two of them teamed up, made their escape and proceeded to rob banks at an unprecedented rate. In this fast-paced, no-holds-barred, no-punches-pulled memoir, Heyl exposes the hell of prison life, revels in the sheer gung-ho audacity of robbing banks and hiding in plain sight, and reveals an inept and incompetent police force. As a member of the notorious 'Stander Gang', which both appalled and enthralled South Africans in the late '70s and early '80s, Allan became a career criminal. But this choice of lifestyle had its consequences ... With humour, fresh insight and
