trip was to the south of India. I started in the province of Tamil

Nadu, first living

in a Church

Women Centre in

the city of

Chennai, then in

Mugaiyur, a small village. For six months I took pictures and had conversations with roommates, guides, and members of the families who had taken me in as a guest. I had very many questions, as did they. After children, the main subject was always love. Everything I

heard from them

and saw around

me there filled me

with both surprise

and doubt, but

above all with admiration. I

admired their

courage and faith.

Their arranged marriages were a fascinating mystery to me.

One way to understand arranged marriages was to make portraits. I photographed women and men various ages,
