

Divali We Love Festivals

In my life I was beset by the tragedy of what my mind conceived and what life presented. I was a normal guy with unusual circumstances, which made me realize that my soul would awaken by accepting the blessings that I turned my back from. This is a story of a journey to the majestic land of India and how a mans destiny was revealed to him by what he thought was the ultimate end of him. The reader, whether student, teacher, parent, will find in this book something to treasure, something that will move the spirit from within to act, and find fulfillment in making a difference.

Diwali Is All Set To Light Up The City And Lift Some Of The Covid-19 Gloom Diwali is in the air and there's a spring in the step of people all around -the Festival of Lights is all set to bring with it an abundance of joy and happiness. One hopes this Diwali will generate enough brightness to dispel some of the shadow that the Covid-19 pandemic continues to cast. As the saying goes, the more things change, the more they remain the same. In our Cover Story we take a trip down memory lane, and speak to people as they recall how the festival has evolved over the years. As the annual festive season continues, so does the tradition of the grand Diwali sale. Our team brings you the lockdown on some of the most interesting offers around town this Diwali. Business has been picking up over the past few days as shoppers throng the markets, from the neighbourhood store selling Diwali knick knacks to the retail chains unveiling the latest products. This is also the time for the fashion-conscious to keep pace with the latest in fashion for the festive season. We take a look at what's trending this year. And if we are talking about festivities, can food be far behind? We visit Cuttack to soak in some traditional culinary experiences. Talking of food, Bhubaneswar now has a brand-new one-stop destination for foodies keen to try out a range of cuisine under one roof. We bring you all the details. Our Health & Fitness section takes a close look at diabetes, a health problem that is affecting a growing number of people across the world. In the run-up to World Diabetes Day, a well-known expert answers a wide range of questions related to diabetes. For several years now, the Showcase Odisha Awards have celebrated individuals and institutions that are making a mark, not just for themselves and their organisations but also for the state and the people who derive their identity from it. The 6th Edition of the Showcase Odisha awards, held in New Delhi in October, was no different. We bring you a special feature on the awards function and the awardees who were felicitated for their unique contributions across diverse fields. Those who have followed news about Covid-19 over the past few months would have definitely come across this name. We catch up with Sanghamitra Pati, Director of the ICMR-RMRC Bhubaneswar who has been ranked as the second-most influential researcher from India in a recent study.

"Lalli's prose is deft, her characters are delightful and her book is the just-right holiday romance."--USA Today One type-A data analyst discovers her free-spirited side on an impulsive journey from bustling Mumbai to the gorgeous beaches of Goa and finds love waiting for her on Christmas morning. Twenty-nine-year-old Niki Randhawa has always made practical decisions. Despite her love for music and art, she became an analyst for the stability. She's always stuck close to home, in case her family needed her. And she's always dated guys that seem good on paper, rather than the ones who give her butterflies. When she's laid off, Niki realizes that practical hasn't exactly paid off for her. So for the first time ever, she throws caution to the wind and books a last-minute flight for her friend Diya's wedding. Niki arrives in India just in time to celebrate Diwali, the festival of lights, where she meets London musician Sameer Mukherji. Maybe it's the splendor of Mumbai or the magic of the holiday season, but Niki is immediately drawn to Sam. At the wedding, the champagne flows and their flirtatious banter makes it clear that the attraction is mutual. When Niki and Sam join Diya, her husband and their friends on a group honeymoon, their connection grows deeper. Free-spirited Sam helps Niki get in touch with her passionate and creative side, and with her Indian roots. When she gets a new job offer back home, Niki must decide what she wants out of the next chapter of her life-to cling to the straight and narrow like always, or to take a leap of faith and live the kind of bold life the old Niki never would have dreamed of.

The Buddhism of Nichiren Daishonin in Wales and the Borders

Shubb Diwali!

In 1983, a tiny group of people in Cardiff, Wales, and a married couple in Aberporth, West Wales, were the only Welsh members of Soka Gakkai International, a Japanese movement based on the beliefs and teachings of the 13th century Buddhist, Nichiren Daishonin. Today, there are hundreds of members in Wales and the Borders. This book examines the history of the movement in these two areas and draws on original research gleaned from the members themselves. The research elicits facets of their faith, practices, and study, as well as their testimonies to the success of such beliefs and practices in their daily lives. The book combines the twin goals of academic analysis of the Buddhism of Nichiren Daishonin in general with the warmth of its expression in the lives of its adherents in Wales and the Borders. Contents include: the philosophy and history of Nichiren Daishonin Buddhism; the history of Nichiren Daishonin Buddhism in Wales and the Borders; the human revolution for a universal humanity; practices, experiences, and ceremonies; and the Lotus Sutra.
