The Music of Dolphins

Simple rhyming text describes the behavior of whales and dolphins, including singing, diving, playing, and eating.

The dream always began the same for fifteen-year-old Coral Dover. She entered the ocean water alone - and ended up in a cave on the back of a dolphin. It happened every night for the last eight years since her parents disappeared. Coral longed to go to the place her parents' plane went down, but she was stuck in the middle of a desert. Finally, her aunt announced they were going on a vacation to the place it happened-Hawaii. Everything was falling into place until Coral noticed unusual things happening around them. With only of four. Researchers teach Mila language and music. She learns, too, about rules and expectations, about locked doors and broken promises, disappointment and betrayal. The more Mila finds out what it means to be human, the more deeply she longs for her island home. With a highly original narrative style to mirror its plot, this is an unusual, moving and appealing story which stays in the mind long after it is read.

Records the courage and self-reliance of an Indian girl who lived alone for eighteen years on an isolated island off the California coast when her tribe emigrated and she was left behind.
