An award-winning scientist offers his unorthodox approach to childrearing: "Parentology is brilliant, jaw-droppingly funny, and full of wisdom...bound to change your thinking about parenting and its conventions" (Amy Chua, author of Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother). If you're like many parents, you might ask family and friends for advice when faced with important choices about how to raise your kids. You might turn to parenting books or simply rely on timeworn religious or cultural traditions. But when Dalton Conley, a dual-doctorate scientist and full-blown nerd, needed childrearing advice, he turned to scientific research to make the big decisions. In Parentology, Conley hilariously reports the results of those experiments, from bribing his kids to do math (since studies show conditional cash transfers improved educational and health outcomes for kids) to teaching them impulse control by giving them weird names (because evidence shows kids with unique names learn not to react when their peers tease them) to getting a vasectomy (because fewer kids in a family mean smarter kids). Conley encourages parents to draw on the latest data to rear children, if only because that level of engagement with kids will produce solid and happy ones. Ultimately these experiments are very loving, and the outcomes are redemptive—even when Conley's sassy kids show him the limits of his profession. Parentology teaches you everything you need to know about the latest literature on parenting—with lessons that go down easy. You'll be laughing and learning at the same time.

*Owing to the verbose, flowery and flavourless textbook which is most commonly used, I decided to take a stand; no more shalt the anxious student suffer under the might of monotonous dross! Cease, I say, for it is these very notes which shalt liberate ye poor souls, fashioning many an A* with sublime and blissful speed. Remember these notes, and, 'tis true, dear comrade, that thou shalt become like I, King of Kings, and destroy the dragon undert' mountain itself. Thus I beg of ye to make swift purchase of these notes, which were crafted by my own hand, which slaved for many a day to make them as succinct as possible. 'Tis true, my hands are calloused and a fever approaches (such was my determination to overcome mighty forces), and may be said that I, like Prometheus himself, gave the gift of fire itself to those who were previously ignorant. Rejoice, comrade! Help is at hand.*
