En for alle er andet og selvstændige bind i John Nehms serie om storbonden Mads Klausen og de skæbner, der omgiver ham i mellemkrigstidens Danmark. Så snart bogen åbnes springer alverdens skæve og dog tidstypiske eksistenser frem fra siderne. Her er pædofile præster, praktiserende hekse, bistre bønder og vrede slagtersvende. Hver især skildrer de de hårde vilkår, man både på landet og i byen stod overfor efter Første verdenskrig. John Nehm (f. 1934) debuterede som forfatter i 1975. Han har siden skrevet en lang række romaner, noveller, digte, børne- og ungdomsbøger, samt skuespil. Romanerne Man går ind ad en port og Ståsted søges dannede grundlag for Morten Arnfreds film Johnny Larsen og romanen De frigjorte blev i 1993 filmatiseret af Erik Clausen. "Det er stadigvæk en fed gang folkekomedie, men Nehm glemmer aldrig det medmenneskelige og socialrealistiske perspektiv i sin forrygende roman med et tilsyneladende ægte tidsbillede om Danmark i en brydningstid. For nu at gentage anmeldelsen fra i fjor: Det er en helvedes flot roman!" - B.T. in data analysis as typically encountered in the physical sciences. It is primarily addressed at students and professionals who need to draw quantitative conclusions from experimental data. Although most of the examples are taken from particle physics, the material is presented in a sufficiently general way as to be useful to people from most branches of the physical sciences. The first part of the book describes the basic tools of data analysis: concepts of probability and random variables, Monte Carlo techniques, statistical tests, and methods of parameter estimation. The last three chapters are somewhat more

The papers in this volume were presented at the Fifth Biennial Symposium of the Department of Linguistics, Rice University, March 1993. The participants were asked to concentrate in depth and in a self-reflective way upon some range of data. The intent was multifold. The first purpose was descriptive. It was expected that the participants would carry out their task in a retrospective way, exemplifying and building upon their previous work, but it was also expected that they would begin to demonstrate the configuration of some area in a more comprehensive picture of language. The point was to take (at least) one substantive step in the depiction of what we think language will ultimately be like. The contributions were both specific and generalizing, with focus as much upon methodology as upon hypotheses about language. In examining descriptive practice, we continued to concentrate upon issues which concerned us all, and at the same time we tried to advance the discourse by the results of such description. We hoped that problematic and recalcitrant data would make our own practice clearer to us and that it might also instruct us in the refinement of in Danish Yearbook of Philosophy, 1979, and "The Bohr-H!llffding Relationship Reconsidered", published in Studies in History and Philosophy of Science, 1988. These two papers complement each other, and in order to give the whole issue a more extended treatment I have sought, in the present volume by drawing on relevant historical material, to substantiate the claim that H!llffding was Bohr's mentor. Besides containing a detailed account of Bohr's philosophy, the book, at the same time, serves the purpose of making H!llffding's ideas and historical significance better known to a non-Danish readership. During my work on this book I have consulted the Royal Danish Library; the National Archive of Denmark and the Niels Bohr Archive, Copenhagen, in search of relevant material. I am grateful for permission to use and quote material from these sources. Likewise, I am indebted to colleagues and friends for commenting upon the manuscript: I am especially grateful to Professor Henry Folse for our many discussions during my visit to New Orleans in November-December 1988 and again here in Elsinore in mange kunstarter og fagområder. I rapporten dokumenteres animationsteaterets læringspotentialer og billedsprog. Undersøgelsen bygger på erfaringer fra undervisningsforløb, som analyseres og tematiseres i forhold til teorier om kunst og læring. Bogen indeholder en række eksempler på undervisningsforløb fra skoler og seminarier - tænkt som inspiration til opdyrkning af animationsteater i teori og praksis.

The Philippines series of the PALI Language Texts, under the general editorship of Howard P. McKaughan, consists of lesson textbooks, grammars, and dictionaries for seven major Filipino languages.

This book explores the concepts for innovation and entrepreneurship through multiple lenses in the context of education. Mixing equal parts theory and practice, this volume takes a closer look on how innovation and entrepreneurship are approached around the globe as disciplines, methods, and mindsets.
