The world of veterinary medicine is changing. People are realizing that if alternative medicine is better for them, it's better for their pets, too. Dogs are visiting acupuncturists, chiropractic doctors, and homeopaths. Still, many dog owners are unaware that such simple measures as changing their pet's diet and using vitamins, herbs, and other natural cures can help prevent or heal ailments ranging from excessive scratching to depression to a host of serious diseases. The Veterinarians' Guide to Natural Remedies for Dogs is both an introduction and a guide to the vast world of natural healing methods, treatments, and foods now available for dogs. Author Martin Zucker offers advice from dozens of holistic practitioners and licensed veterinarians, who share their recipes, insights, and "prescriptions." Here dog owners will find information on everything from nutritional supplements to massage therapy, as well as how these treatments can be used alone or in conjunction with traditional medications and surgical techniques.

You've probably already heard about essential oils. The pure, distilled, mega-factor of a plant's life. They're comprised of powerful chemicals that can aid and assist your body (or your dog's body) to perform to their fullest capacity. By utilizing this natural medicine, you can encourage both health and healing. In fact, most of our 'modern' medicines are derived from natural sources, and by getting straight to the point, you can not only cut costs (financially), but also cut down on negative side effects associated with our over-strong synthesized veterinary medications.

The second edition of this book is virtually a new book. It is the only comprehensive text on the safety of essential oils and the first review of essential oil/drug interactions and provides detailed essential oil constituent data not found in any other text. Much of the existing text has been re-written, and 80% of the text is completely new. There are 400 comprehensive essential oil profiles and almost 4000 references. There are new chapters on the respiratory system, the cardiovascular system, the urinary system, the digestive system and the nervous system. For each essential oil there is a full breakdown of constituents, and a clear categorization of hazards and risks, with recommended maximum doses and concentrations. There are also 206 Constituent Profiles. There is considerable discussion of carcinogens, the human relevance of some of the animal data, the validity of treating an essential oil as if it was a single chemical, and the arbitrary nature of uncertainty factors. There is a critique of current regulations.

Essential Oil Safety - E-Book

It is only in recent years that aromatherapy, or essential oil therapy, has gained substantial acceptance; this is primarily due to French veterinarians who have begun using essential oils and hydrosols in their practices. Laypeople, of course, have been enjoying great success treating animals with the very same substances for many years; for it is not just the medical professionals who can safely and effectively administer these aromatic oils. Anyone enabled with quality essential oils or hydrosols and adequate knowledge can use a plant's most concentrated and energetic byproducts to improve the health of their animals, and treat and prevent various illnesses and common ailments. Aromatherapy is actually a science that has a much larger archive of supported scientific data than most other holistic care methods. However, most of these studies were originally published in French or German. Aromatherapy was the first natural, holistic therapy the author began using, and she relies on it as my primary form of healthcare to treat and balance all sorts of minor ailments and discomforts in the lives of her family and their pets. She has rarely needed to use any other sort of remedy to achieve the desired result. These powerful substances are the most fascinating, sensual and complex of all natural therapies -- a combination that proves to be so enthralling it eventually develops into a grand passion for many.

This is the story of an Irish family from Cork Ireland. It documents how they survived in the 50's and 60's and will take you on a roller coaster ride of every emotion, sometimes all on the same page. Here you will read of an inspiring mother, always encouraging her six children to laugh at life, and believe in tomorrow. She did this inspiring while battling a domineering old grandmother, and an alcoholic husband, as her children drank tea from their jam jars, and read by a candle. Its a book filled with humor, drama, and dreams that come true, culminating in the author meeting his American dream. It's said the book is like, Irish Stew for the Soul. You will feel uplifted when you finish reading a book that seems to be everyone's story.

Essential Oils for Pets

Natural healing for pets has emerged into the mainstream—veterinarians across the nation are now providing acupuncture, chiropractic, and other alternative methods. With Energy Healing for Animals, acclaimed animal communicator Joan Ranquet offers an essential guide for anyone seeking to enhance their pet 's health, longevity, and quality of life—and deepen their bond with a beloved companion. “ Animals are so receptive to healing energy, ” explains Joan, “ that they ' re often easier to work with than our fellow humans. In this engaging do-it-yourself pet therapy resource, this gifted healer offers a broad spectrum of guidance and tools to help our animal companions with behavior issues, pain relief, anxiety, and overall well-being. Here she presents practical instruction in pet Reiki, massage, feng shui, chakra systems, acupressure, Healing Touch, and much more—including breed-specific guidance for cats and dogs.

This encyclopedic book contains, in practical and easy-to-understand form, every conceivable use for essential oils and aromatherapy in everyday life. The author, a practicing aromatherapist for more than twenty years, unlocks the power of essential oils in more than 600 original recipes, most needing only a few essential oils. Unlike over-the-counter products, the recipes you make yourself contain no harmful preservatives. Most basic needs can be covered with just ten essential oils.

What you say, what you think, what you feed, the veterinary care that you choose, the home you provide, and even your self-care has an impact on your pet! Journey with me, a holistic veterinarian, into the mind-body connection that controls your pet's emotional and physical well-being and then, "Live with Your Pet in Mind!" Positively impact the quality and longevity of life experienced by you, and your dog or cat; engage in the recognition and implementation of five powerful, life-changing areas of focus. Open your mind to telepathy and animal communication, Conscious Language(TM) practices, natural nutrition with species-appropriate raw diets, titer testing, and the avoidance of excessive vaccinations. Learn how natural modalities, such as acupuncture and essential oils, are easily integrated into your pet's natural health care. Learn how to identify and avoid toxins in your little carnivore's processed food, environment, and in your own lifestyle. Be aware for self-care! Read ingredient labels. Be your pet's advocate. I will teach you in a fun way, using real-life anecdotes, how to live up to your pet's expectations! This book is for you, the intense pet lover, who fancies yourself to be more than a pet guardian, but rather, a pet parent. This is for you, the reader who wants your pet to live forever, but you never realize how important your own well-being is to the good health and happiness of your best four-legged friend. This is for you, the book lover who thinks you've read all there is on pet care. There are some surprises between the covers of this self-help for the person and pet. As an integrative veterinarian, I have observed the uncanny coincidence of dis-ease in my pet patient and the similarity of imbalance in the guardian or another close household member. Is the pet a sponge, a mirror or a canary in the coal mine? Do we need to be more careful about how we care for ourselves because we are unknowingly harming our pets? "Live with Your Pet in Mind" may be the awakening that revolutionizes how you, and the rest of the pet-loving population, think about pet needs and wants, and how you respond to these fur-kid desires. Just when you thought you couldn't possibly love your dog or cat anymore, this read will create a deeper connection than you could have ever imagined possible. And with that, will come your new found sense of responsibility to attain the ultimate in truly natural, holistic family care. The Foreword was written by Marcella Vonn Harting, Ph.D. in Psychoneurology and Integrative Health. she authored among others, the titles, "Yes, No, Maybe" Chronobiotic Nutrition" and "Guerrilla MultiLevel Marketing. She is the founder of Highest Potential Academy, the program where Dr. Jodie first learned about Conscious Language. Dr. Harting says, "I think the most important message in Dr. Jodie's book is her authenticity and true caring for you as a human being and the animals you love and care for. Greg Tilford, author of "Herbs for Pets" has this to say about Dr. Jodie's outreach, "A compassionate, experienced and gifted veterinarian and teacher, Dr. Jodie's work takes animal healing to the next level where concepts of health, wellness and green living combine with animal companionship to enrich the lives of humans and animals alike.

"The family elements in the story - the real struggles with marriage, raising a family, making a living, and just trying to enjoy life - have broadened the book's appeal to a wider audience, primarily women who are not into technology."DARK END OF SPECTRUM will make you think twice before turning on your cell phone or PDA!DARK END OF THE SPECTRUM is a frighteningly plausible and headline ripping tale of the real threats that loom in cyberspace and beyond with a Michael Crichton realism. Based on the author's years of research into the hacker culture.DARK END OF THE SPECTRUM is a thriller that will connect with everyone with a cell phone, PDA or wireless device.When a group of digital terrorists known as ICER take over the US power grid and the cell phone network, they give the government an ultimatum - bomb the borders of Afghanistan and Pakistan with nuclear weapons to put an end to Al-Quada or they will start downing commercial airliners. When the government refuses, ICER destroys most of the downed aircraft in airports all over the country. When ICER sends a pulse that will kill millions on the East Coast, only security expert Dan Riker can stop them, but ICER has kidnapped Dan's family.Will Dan save his family or will millions die?

We have embraced our dogs as part of the family for centuries; they are indispensable to our hearts and happiness. It's no surprise that when it comes to their health, we would do anything to keep them safe and ease any of their discomforts. Unfortunately, veterinarian costs add up quickly and often produce mediocre results, not to mention exposing our pets to unnecessary and sometimes painful procedures. Conventional care is no longer your only choice as more and more pet owners have realized the undeniable benefits of homeopathic therapy.
