One of the Trailblazers series of audio books on popular non-fiction topics. 'Extreme Sports' includes a fully illustrated non-fiction section with fascinating information on the topic, followed by a fiction story. The series will appeal to older children and young adults and is particularly suitable for those with

Download Ebook Extreme Sports Trailblazers

an extremely low level of literacy or learning English as a second language. The Trailblazers series has been written for older children and young adults with a reading age of 5-8 but has strong general appeal for all children who has just becoming independent readers. The books are suitable for general reading or as part of a more structured reading programme. Each book is on a strong, popular topic, with a colourful, attractive layout. Each book has a non fiction and a fiction section.

The fiction story appears in two formats - one with simple texts for poor readers; the facing pages contain an illustrated "speech bubble" version of the same story, for those who are just starting to learn to read. These two levels of entry give access points for children and young adults with different reading ages. The vocabulary of each book is carefully limited, with simple sentences to reinforce reading skills, which make the books suitable for even the poorest readers. 'Extreme Sports' details some of the common extreme sports, such as hand gliding and parachuting, as well as some uncommon ones, like cheese rolling! In the exhilarating fiction story 'The Climb', a boy must use all of his skill at climbing to save his own life.
