Gladys Aylward (1902-1970) had trusted God when she traveled all alone from England to the far-off land of China. That same trust enabled her to lead nearly one hundred Chinese orphans on another daring journey, looking for safe homes away from the war in their village. The journey was hard, but God helped Gladys and the children every step of the way.

Jennifer Wiseman. Dr.

Wiseman studies stars and interstellar clouds using radio, infrared, and optical telescopes. She has worked with several major astronomy observatories. This true story tells what happens when a girl's love and curiosity for nature meets her passion for God. Young readers begin the story by exploring nature with young Jennifer in Arkansas' Ozark Mountains and eventually adventure into the far reaches of the universe to learn about black holes, discover a comet, and explore the mysteries of God's creation.

young lady who went to China on her own and was able to rescue 100 children from the Japanese army.

Frank felt his heart beat fast. At that moment he was certain God was calling him, asking him to give up his ties to his homeland and set out across the Atlantic Ocean. He did not hesitate to stand when John Wesley asked preachers to walk forward if they felt God was calling them to the American colonies. One of the first Methodist bishops in America, English-born Francis Asbury devoted his life to ministry, traveling on horseback to preach and teach to those living on the vastly isolated American frontier. Alone in a new country, with no home of his own, Asbury rode over 300,000 miles-across rivers and through rocky, overgrown roads-shining God's light on the fledgling colonies. When many Methodist clergy left America during the Revolutionary War, Asbury stayed. His tireless leadership saw the movement grow from 5,000 members in 1776 to 214,000 at the time of his death in 1816, fulfilling the great destiny of his call and inspiring future generations. courageous, and who love Jesus? -Amy L. Sullivan Book One in the Gutsy Girls: Strong Christian Women Who Impacted the World series introduces readers to Gladys Aylward, the ultimate gutsy girl. Gladys wanted to tell the people of China about Jesus, but others said she was "too old" and "not smart" and that China was "far too dangerous". Gladys ignored these words and set out on an adventure. Young readers are invited to jump aboard the Trans-Siberian Railway and experience Gladys' story, told with engaging text and stunning illustrations.
