Lonely Planet Norway is your most up-to-date advice on what to see and skip, and what hidden discoveries await you. Visit Oslo; Norway's cultural capital, hike glacier-strewn high country, or simply hope to catch the elusive Northern Lights; all with your trusted travel companion.

This book is one of three inter-connected books related to a four-year European Cooperation in Science and Technology (COST) Action established in 2015. The Action, called Air Transport and Regional Development (ATARD), aimed to promote a better understanding of how the air transport related problems of core regions and remote regions should be addressed in order to enhance both economic competitiveness and social cohesion in Europe. This book focuses on case studies in Europe related to air transport and regional development. It is divided into four geographical regions after a general chapter that compares regional air transport connectivity between remote and central areas in Europe. The first region is Northern and Western Northern Europe (case studies related specifically to Norway, Finland, the United Kingdom, and Ireland); the second is Central and Eastern Europe, (Bulgaria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and Poland); the third is Central Western Europe (Belgium and Switzerland); and finally, the fourth is Southern Europe (Portugal, Spain, and Italy). There is no other single source publication that currently covers this topic area in such a comprehensive manner by considering so many countries. The book aims at becoming a major reference on the topic, drawing from experienced researchers in the field, covering the diverse experience and knowledge of the members of the COST Action. The book will appeal to academics, practitioners, and policymakers who have a particular interest in acquiring detailed comparative knowledge and understanding of air transport and regional development in many different European countries. Together with the other two books (Air Transport and Regional Development Methodologies and Air Transport and Regional Development Policies), it fills a much-needed gap in the literature.

Traces of the Cold War Period ; the Countries Around The Baltic Sea

Dass sie jüdische Wurzeln hat, erfährt Randi Crott erst, als sie erwachsen ist. Und genau wie ihre Mutter 1942 soll auch sie jetzt – über zwei Jahrzehnte nach dem Krieg – mit niemandem darüber sprechen. Bis zum Tode des Vaters bleibt seine Geschichte verborgen. Weggepackt in alten Briefen und Dokumenten. Mit großer Leidenschaft rekonstruiert die Autorin den Lebensweg ihrer Eltern. Er reicht von der Verfolgung der Juden in Deutschland über die deutsche Besatzung in Norwegen bis hin zu den Problemen der Vergangenheitsbewältigung nach dem Krieg. Randi Crotts bewegende Familiengeschichte wurde zum Bestseller und stand monatelang auf Platz 1 der Bestsellerliste. Nun wurde ihr Buch von Klaus Martens kongenial verfilmt. Der Dokumentarfilm war bundesweit in den Kinos aller großen Städte zu sehen. Er ist jetzt auf DVD (goodmovies / Real Fiction) erhältlich. „Ohne Hitler hätte es mich nicht gegeben. Welches Gefühl ist für so einen Fall reserviert? Ich bin auf der Welt, weil meine norwegische Mutter sich in einen deutschen Besatzungssoldaten verliebt hat. Aber es gibt noch eine andere Wahrheit, die mir lange genug verschwiegen wurde.“ RANDI CROTT
