Are you thinking of having your class read Gary Paulsen's novel, HATCHET? Do you need worksheets to assess students' comprehension for each chapter? If yes, the mega 225-page novel study may be of help to you! As a teacher, I was reluctant to read Hatchet to my class, but changed my mind after reading the novel. Some students may love to read about characters having daring adventures in a wilderness setting. HATCHET is a real page-turner and will keep students wanting to read more when their other work is done! It is a Canadian story about a thirteen year-old boy who flies north to visit his father for the summer. He has a big secret and it affects him deeply. During the flight north, something happens inside the bush plane and the protagonist is challenged to make a life defying decision. HATCHET is truly a "Coming-of-age" and Bildungsroman novel. What happens to the main character will stir and stay with readers long after they finish the last page. This novel study carefully deconstructs each chapter and pulls from the text information that will cause students to think about their own lives in comparison. There are various types of questions that utilize Howard Gardner's Intelligences, prompt online internet research, stimulate classroom discussions and encourage higher-level learning. Students learn to analyze, synthesize and sift data by filling in the blanks, circling true or false questions, selecting from a multiple choice, or providing his/her personal opinion. It is an excellent novel study for your upcoming term!

A unique monster-under-the-bed story with the perfect balance of giggles and shivers, this picture book relies on the power of humor over fear, appeals to a child's love for creatures both alarming and absurd, and glorifies the scope of a child's imagination. One night, when Ethan checks under his bed for his monster, Gabe, he finds a note from him instead: "Gone fishing. Back in a week." Ethan knows that without Gabe's familiar nightly scares he doesn't stand a chance of getting to sleep, so Ethan interviews potential substitutes to see if they've got the right equipment for the job—pointy teeth, sharp claws, and a long tail—but none of them proves scary enough for Ethan. When Gabe returns sooner than expected from his fishing trip, Ethan is thrilled. It turns out that Gabe didn't enjoy fishing because the fish scared too easily. northward, following a wild, fjord-riven shore, navigating from one danger to the next, unsure of his destination. Yet the deeper into his journey he paddles, the closer he comes to his truest self as he connects to "the heartbeat of the ocean . . . the pulse of the sea." With hints of Nordic mythology and an irresistible narrative pull, Northwind is Gary Paulsen at his captivating, adventuresome best. Longlisted for the National Book Award The Newbery Honor-winning author of Hatchet and Dogsong shares surprising true stories about his relationship with animals, highlighting their compassion, intellect, intuition, and sense of adventure. Gary Paulsen is an adventurer who competed in two Iditarods, survived the Minnesota wilderness, and climbed the Bighorns. None of this would have been possible without his truest companion: his animals. Sled dogs rescued him in Alaska, a sickened poodle guarded his well-being, and a horse led him across a desert. Through his interactions with dogs, horses, birds, and more, Gary has been struck with the belief that animals know more than we may fathom. His understanding and admiration of animals is well known, and in This Side of Wild, which has taken a lifetime to write, he proves the ways in which they have taught him to be a better person.

Guess what -- Gary Paulsen was being kind to Brian. In Guts, Gary tells the real stories behind the Brian books, the stories of the adventures that inspired him to write Brian Robeson's story: working as an emergency volunteer; the death that inspired the pilot's death in Hatchet; plane crashes he has seen and near-misses of his own. He describes how he made his own bows and arrows, and takes readers on his first hunting trips, showing the wonder and solace of nature along with his hilarious mishaps and mistakes. He shares special memories, such as the night he attracted every mosquito in the county, or how he met the moose with a sense of humor, and the moose who made it personal. There's a handy chapter on "Eating Eyeballs and Guts or Starving: The Fine Art of Wilderness Nutrition." Recipes included. Readers may wonder how Gary Paulsen survived to write all of his books -- well, it took guts. The Theory, Practice and Destructive Properties of Greed
