Explores the nature, occurrence and uses of laughter in a range of different kinds of interactions across a variety of languages. "I have a proposal for you..." The last place respectable governess lanthe Holt ever expected to be proposed to was in a train carriage...by a stranger...who had just accused her of trying to trap another man into marriage! Shipping magnate Robert Felstone may be dashing, but he's also insufferable, impertinent—and lanthe's only possible savior from her uncertain fate. She's hesitant to play the perfect Felstone wife, but Robert soon shows lanthe there's more to him than meets the eye, and more to marriage than vows...

An illuminating example of friendship as a vital way God answers our need for guidance, encouragement, affirmation, and correction. Most of the time, what we need to help us through the struggles in our lives is not the advice of an expert but the wisdom of a friend. Through this series of eloquent letters written to a life-long friend, author Eugene Peterson demonstrates friendship as a means to Christian maturity. The topics covered in this warm and highly personal correspondence are broad and varied, but one thing comes through with constancy and clarity: there is great value in a wise, experienced friend to help us see more clearly and to strengthen our growth in faith and godliness.

Designed for middle school teachers and students in California. Offer teachers and students a method to focus on the written and oral language convention required by the standards--to provide an effective way to teach and learn grammar, usage, and mechanics skills.
