¡Qué chévere! is an engaging program that develops students' communication skills by providing ample speaking and writing practice in contextualized situations, working with partners and in groups.

Being healthy is much more than being physically fit and free from disease. Health is the state of well-being in which all of the components of health -- physical, emotional, social, mental, spiritual, and environmental -- are in balance. To be truly healthy, you must take care of all six components. - p. 11.

"Gente" is the only truly task-based program that transports you, the learner, into an immersive environment. Learners interact with authentic language from the Hispanic world through a series of carefully-sequenced communicative activities culminating in a real-life task. "Tasks" are collaborative projects that integrate speaking, listening, reading and writing to complete them with the skills that are needed to communicate effectively in the real world! With "Gente," you learn by "doing," communicate with a purpose and emerge as an independent learner with the confidence to speak Spanish in a spontaneous, natural way.

Church History: Apostolic Times to Today. This course examines the events of the Church's life, the contributions to human life it has made, and studies the challenges the Church has faced overtime, from her earliest history. In addition to the complete text of the print book, the iBook Edition, and the enhanced interactive e-Books, add the following features: In-text links to official, online versions of Scripture, the Catechism, and Church documents so that students can study quotes from the text in their original context. In-text links to online biographies of all the saints mentioned in the student text. Photo galleries that explore topics in the text. Presentations that review key concepts. Self-correcting quizzes that assess the student's mastery of the content in each part of the text. Links to online videos that explore people or concepts in greater depth. The Living in Christ Series Makes the most of the wisdom and experience of Catholic high school teachers as they empower and guide students to participate in their own learning. Engages students' intellect and responds to their natural desire to know God. Encourages faith in action through carefully crafted learning objectives, lessons, activities, active learning, and summative projects that address multiple learning styles. What you will find . . . Each Living in Christ student book is developed in line with the U.S. Bishops' High School Curriculum Framework and provides key doctrine essential to the course in a clear and accessible way, making it relevant to the students and how they live their lives. Each Living in Christ teacher guide carefully crafts the lessons, based on the key principles of Understanding by Design, to guide the students' understanding of key concepts. Living in Christ offers an innovative, online learning environment featuring flexible and customizable resources to enrich and empower the teacher to respond to the diverse learning needs of the students. The Living in Christ series is available to you in traditional full-color text and in digital textbook format, offering you options to meet your preferences and needs. **This title is in conformity with the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the USCCB's Curriculum Framework.
