This study explores education and training systems of the Caribbean nations that are members both of The World Bank and the Caribbean Group for Cooperation in Economic Development (CGCED). The study does not attempt to provide a detailed blueprint for each country or set of institutions or present new research findings. Overall, the emphasis is to highlight the commonality of education sector issues across the region and to discuss successful ongoing initiatives, as well as outline promising new policy and investment options meriting further exploration to enhance access to and the quality and efficiency of education. The "Caribbean Education Action Plan" summarizes the options. It is hoped that the report will catalyze further debate among governments and within the international development community on an appropriate human resources development strategy for the Caribbean for the 1990s and beyond. Three principal areas for further work include: (1) educational measurement and research to guide policy development; (2) the supply and distribution of educational materials; and (3) expansion of continuing education opportunities for all age groups. The report includes a foreword, an executive summary and recommendations, the proposed Caribbean education action plan, three annexes, a statistical appendix, a listing of 135 references and 47 other works consulted, and a map of the Caribbean region. (SG).

A range of resources for CAPE has been specially developed to meet the requirements of the CAPE syllabus. This new textbook has been developed to match the requirements of the CAPE Management of Business syllabus. Full coverage of the CAPE syllabus is provided and the content has a clear focus on the Caribbean economic and business environment. A distinctive feature is the provision of examination-type questions at the end of each major section. The questions come with a suggested time limits for answering, giving useful practice in how to allocate time for the final examination. Management of Business for CAPE includes case studies from a variety of countries and industries, as well as an internal assessment component.

Completely matching the CXC syllabus, Electronic Document Preparation and Management for CSEC provides comprehensive coverage and is a key text for all students taking the exam. This book offers plenty of examples showing processes step by step, Activities, Tasks and Test Yourself, along with exercises that meet the requirements of the SBA.

Conversational in style and rich in application and discussion, Family Resource Management shows students how to apply knowledge and theory to the study of how families manage their resources for both survival and fulfillment. Multiple perspectives are used to broaden the base of understanding in a contemporary environment. The book unlocks the complexity of family decision making, enabling students to grasp both the concepts and the underlying explanations of family behavior. A strong theory base and the organization of material within the decision-making process framework facilitate understanding and retention. The Third Edition has been enhanced through surveys of educational professionals and extensive research of contemporary challenges emerging post 2008 recession and the 2016 election.
