The historical horse is at once material and abstract, as is the notion of the border. Borders and frontiers are not only markers delineating geographical spaces but also mental constructs: there are

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

borders between order and disorder, between what is permitted and what is prohibited. Boundaries and liminal spaces also exist in the material, economic, political, moral, legal and religious spheres. In this volume, the contributing authors explore the theme of the liminality of the horse in all of these historical arenas, asking how does one reconcile the very different roles played by the horse in human history?

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

This study investigates the problems translators encounter when rendering features of Dickens's style in A Tale of Two Cities into Arabic. Examples of these features are singled out and analyzed. Then, they are compared with their counterparts in published translations of the novel in Arabic. The comparisons depend on back translation to give non-readers of Arabic a clear idea about the similarities and differences between the source text and target one(s). The features under focus are sound effects, figurative language, humor, repetition, and the French element. The discussion dedicated to onomatopoeia, alliteration, and rhyme shows that there is no one-to-one correspondence between English and Arabic in reflecting these linguistic phenomena.

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Translators may resort to techniques like rewording or paraphrasing to convey their propositional content at the expense of their sound effects.

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Problems also arise when rendering figurative language into Arabic. Various images in the novel are substituted by different ones that convey similar meanings

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

in Arabic. Some of them are deleted or reduced to their propositional content. In addition, footnotes are used to convey cultural aspects. Translating humor shows

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

the role context plays in facilitating the translator's task.

Techniques of translating humor
conveyed via substandard English are noted. The

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

researcher also discusses translating humor that depends on background knowledge that the target text readers may not be familiar with. Further translation issues are noticed when rendering repetition. Some linguistic asymmetries between English and Arabic make translators dispense with repetition and resort to synonymy, collocations, and constructions that fit in Arabic. More problems arise when rendering the French element in various names, titles,

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

and what might be considered as literal translations of French speech. Throughout the discussion suggestions are made to bring about more adequate renderings. This study also discusses the novel as a metaphor of translating. Many aspects of the novel are comparable to the translation process.

Online Library Horses In The Mist 2009 Wall Calendar

Relationships among various characters provide a perspective from which the relationship between authors, translators/readers, and

text can be seen.

Finally, the significance of some examples of inter-language communication in the novel is pointed out.
