"success" has
different meanings
to different people.

Success can mean, among
other things: fame,
fortune, emotional
or skillful
achievement.

Proceeding
through our growth
years to maturity,

“We make decisions, but decisions make our life.” All of us need to make decisions that may be major or minor. One good decision can work wonders and dramatically change our lives forever. Similarly, one bad decision can prove disastrous

and make life horrible. So

ultimately, our life is a sum total of the decisions we make.
This highlights the
fact that decision
making is the most important thing we
do throughout our lives. If the decision making process is so vital, then shouldn't

an all-out effort be made to improve this process?

Surprisingly and unfortunately, most of us never try to do so! There must be ways and methods to improve the process of decision making. There must be a way to standardize the
