

I Heart Easter

What would it have been like to be present on Easter Day? This sweet board book helps children imagine just that. As the young narrators consider various perspectives on the Resurrection--from a little bee buzzing with excitement to a bunny hopping in delight to the sun shining happily down on the newly-resurrected Jesus--children will be able to feel the infectious joy of the first Easter morning. Charmingly illustrated, this book is a great way to introduce children to the good news of Easter.

EASTER NOW In the last day, God said, I will pour out my Spirit On All People Your sons and daughters will prophesy, you ' re young men shall see visions, your old men will dream (Acts 2:17) DREAMS This book contains God breathed poems, specifically written to saturate the mind of each child when read repetitiously. God is doing a new thing " Now " He has devised a plan to ensure that our sons and daughters receive a reality revelation of what Jesus Christ dying on the cross, did for them to reach their goals; live their dreams; be in good health and relieved from fear clothed in their right mind- NOW!

"There could be no better title for a book by Sheri Easter than Hear My Heart. For more than twenty years Bill and I have had the privilege of watching this lady's heart guide her through both the painful and joyful places that inevitably come with life, parenthood, traveling, aging parents and physical battles. She has allowed Christ do in her life what He longs to do in all our lives. She has allowed Him to define and refine her heart at every turn. We are so pleased that the world now has a chance to hear from her beautiful heart." Gloria Gaither
Hear My Heart is a collection of writings from singer-songwriter, Sheri Easter. Sometimes in life words seem superficial, shallow and empty. We struggle to put our feelings into words that convey an honest representation of the heart. By embracing the quiet moments, we hear what our heart cries in the darkness of a loved one's death, a battle with breast cancer or caring for an aging parent suffering from Parkinson's disease. We hear the shouts of triumph of wedding bells, anniversaries, and the celebrations of life. We hear the heart. Sheri is a wife and mother of three children. She is a two-time Grammy nominated gospel artist, winner of six Dove Awards, and breast cancer survivor. She and her husband, Jeff, both come from acclaimed musical families and have traveled and sang over 26 years now as a couple. Sheri has a Masters in Business Leadership and resides in her hometown of Lincolnton, Georgia.

Easter Rising: The Last Words of Patrick Pearse

Uplifting Stories of Redemption & Hope

The Book of Common Prayer, with Explanatory Notes and Annotations. By the Revd. W. M. Burkitt, A.M. With a Brief History of the Liturgy, &c. Selected from Vener's " Scripture Prayer Book. " And Embellished with Engravings. (A Companion to the Altar.-A New Version of the Psalms, Etc.).

Easter Rising (also known as the Easter Rebellion) was an armed insurrection that took place in Ireland during Easter Week in 1916. Mounted by Irish republicans, it ended British rule and establish an independent Irish Republic. Organized by seven members of the Military Council of the Irish Republican Brotherhood, the rising was led by schoolmaster and activist Patrick Pearse.

This Easter season, examine the lives of women who intersected the life of Jesus. By taking time to examine the footsteps of Jesus, focus on His teaching, and watch His words in action, this resource is a celebration of Christ's amazing love in the form of an eight-week Bible study for women.

This Little White Book is meant to help you enjoy six minutes a day in prayer during these next 50 days of the Easter season. The key is the right-hand page. On that page each day (except Sundays) we'll look at the Gospel passages assigned for the weekday Mass, and suggest some reflections.

Preparing her eggs for the Easter Festival, Old Babushka takes in Rechenka, an injured goose, who shows her that miracles can really happen, in a story that is enhanced by illustrations of Ukrainian painted eggs. Reprint. Reading Rainbow.

Rhyming text introduces the ways that children can act to show their love of Jesus, from sharing the last cookie to reassuring a scared sibling.

ECPA BESTSELLER • This giftable Bible study for the Lenten season explores the stories of three women who played a vital role in the life and ministry of Jesus, as well as in the events of that first Holy Week that first Easter. With unforgettable insights and powerful life application for today's women, Liz Curtis Higgs delves into the biblical text to help us view Easter through the eyes of three women named Mary, each of whom has a life-changing encounter with Jesus: Mary of Bethany, who prepares the way for the Lord's burial when she anoints His feet and fills the air with her perfume; Mary of Nazareth, who remains by His side from His first breath to His last, her loyalty unwavering; and Mary Magdalene, delivered of seven demons, who bravely supports her Teacher through His darkest hours, then proclaims the glorious news of His resurrection What a trio. What a Savior! Your mind and emotions will be engaged and your faith strengthened as each scene unfolds, preparing your heart for a richer, deeper Easter experience. Higgs, a seasoned Bible teacher and award-winning novelist, combines her storytelling skills with a thorough verse-by-verse study of Scripture as together you explore the remarkable lives of The Women of Easter. "The perfect companion for Easter and beyond!" —Jennie Allen, visionary of IF:Gathering "Liz Curtis Higgs is one of the most amazing teachers of God's Word that I have ever experienced. Her in-depth knowledge of the Scriptures, gifting as a communicator, and personal relationship with the Lord make her unmatched in the ability to take biblical truth and make it applicable to anybody." —Priscilla Shirer, New York Times best-selling author of Fervent Perfect to entertain kids over the Easter break, this pocket-sized coloring book is filled with decorative eggs, spring flowers, fluffy bunnies, chicks and other cute animals. With a pretty foiled cover, I Heart Easter is sure to be an egg-citing gift.

This story is the result of actual adventures shared with my grandchildren. These adventures allow me the opportunity to share Bible stories of God's love with them. In this story, I alter the traditional Easter egg hunt in order to share the true meaning of Easter with them. Imagine their disappointment when I told them they would not be hunting for Easter eggs. There are always opportunities to share life's lessons and the joy found in God's grace. There is nothing on earth that moves my heart more than hearing a loved one draw closer to our Creator. My hope is that this little story will open the door for your children or grandchildren to explore God's Word and experience his mercy, grace, and love.

MY EASTER MIRACLE

Using vignettes set in or near his monastery in downtown Newark, New Jersey, Benedictine monk Albert Holtz helps us to see that the Easter mystery, which can often seem abstract and distant, is in fact present all around us. As we accompany him through the fifty days of the Easter season, we listen in on his intriguing interactions with local street people and his inner-city high school students—an insider's look at what goes on in a monk's heart as he chants Vespers to the sound of police sirens. Anyone wishing to deepen his or her experience of the Easter mystery will find this a valuable and engaging book.

Escape with best friends Angela and Jenny to the balmy beaches of Hawaii in this hilarious, heartwarming romantic comedy. A hallucinating, insomniac, and increasingly fragile flaneur wanders the streets of Paris over the long Easter weekend of 1960. Paris, Easter weekend 1960. The French composer Jacques Besse sets out on a marathon stroll through the city that begins on Good Friday, when he leaves his brother's house on rue de Turbigo, and ends on Easter Monday, when, having declared himself Mars, the god of war, to mystified restaurant-goers, he ambles back toward Saint-Germain-des-Prés. The Great Easter—a memoir in the form of a novella, or perhaps a novella in the form of a memoir—is the first-person account of a hallucinating, insomniac, and increasingly fragile flaneur's unending ambulation. The Great Easter was first published in French in 1969 and became famous a few years later when in their milestone work Anti-Oedipus Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari referred to Besse's walk as the quintessential "double stroll of the schizo." (Besse was a patient at Guattari's psychiatric clinic La Borde.) Besse's stroll purées past and present, real and not-real: a rendezvous with a prostitute intersects with Sergei Eisenstein and his entourage, a bellowed song about the sea is overwhelmed by "memories" of the 1830 July Revolution, and the entire universe gathers itself up into a bubble above Gare d'Austerlitz. He is seized by anxiety, released by joy; he announces his cosmic celebrity via a huge (imaginary) television while freezing in the night and calling out for bread. A cult favorite in France, The Great Easter is an engrossing, surreal road movie of a book.

Preparing My Heart for Easter

Hear My Heart

When photographer Ken Garda flies to Montana to photograph a celebrity wedding, he has no expectation that his heart—and his life—will turn upside down. But when he meets the videographer assigned to assist him, Ken develops a keen interest that goes well beyond photography. Assistant Matt Flowers welcomes the flirtation, but he—like Ken— is unprepared for the depth of feeling he's about to experience. AN EASTER MIRACLE welcomes back the cast of characters from A BUCKSKIN CHRISTMAS. So if you fell in love with Dan and Caleb, Dan's parents Elaine and Richard, and the colorful cast of GLITZ Magazine, you'll be delighted to watch them help Ken and Matt along on their journey. First-time readers will love meeting the whole crew as they navigate their way through life and relationships, career and commitment. AN EASTER MIRACLE is about healing from the wounds of the past in order to move forward. And most of all, it's about the redemptive power of love.

No one goes to the desert for forty days without expecting to find someone or something there. Christians, by their very nature, are seekers. We look for direction, we look for fulfillment, and we look for others who want to walk the road with us. We knock on the doors of the Desert Fathers and Mothers, seeking shelter and wisdom. Embracing the Sacred Season is a guide in this search, at the center of which we hope to find God. What happens when the door is opened, and we know that we are in the presence of God? These unique reflections for the entire seasons of both Lent and Easter, based on Scripture readings, are direct, and help us take an honest look at our relationship with God. Each is followed up by reflection questions and a prayer. Let Janis Yaekel take you on a spiritual dance with God, as you embrace the sacred season.

Celebrating the seasons provides a wonderful opportunity to embrace creativity together as a family. It's also a fun way to decorate for, prepare for, and learn about the holidays we celebrate. In The Artful Year, you'll find a year's worth of art activities, crafts, recipes, and more to help make each season special. These artful explorations are more than just craft projects—they are ways for your family to create memories and mementos and develop creatively, all while exploring nature, new ideas, and traditions. The book includes: •Arts and crafts, using the materials, colors, and themes of the season •Ideas and decorations for celebrating the holidays together •Favorite seasonal recipes that are fun for children to help make (and eat!) •Suggested reading lists of children's picture books about the seasons and holidays The 175+ activities in this book are perfect for children ages one to eight, and for creating traditions that appeal to all ages.
