This book reproduces the text of federal securities laws, SEC rules, forms and other materials that govern the filing of public company financial statements and related disclosures with the SEC. Materials include selected Securities Act forms (e.g., S-1, S-2 and S-3), Exchange Act forms (e.g., 3, 4, 5, 6-K, 8-K, 10-K, 20-F, 40-F), EDGAR forms (e.g., ET, ID, SE and TH), SEC regulations (S-X, S-B, S-K, S-T, A, B, C, FD, G and BTR), industry guides, staff accounting bulletins, financial reporting codification, proxy rules and staff legal bulletins.

This rule implements policy, assigns responsibilities, establishes requirements, and provides procedures, consistent with E.O. 12829, "National Industrial Security Program"; E.O. 10865, "Safeguarding Classified Information within Industry"; 32 CFR part 2004; and DoD Instruction (DoDI) 5220.22, "National Industrial Security Program (NISP)"

SEC Handbook: Rules and Forms for Financial Statements and Related Disclosure This 2021 edition of the SEC Handbook provides the latest requirements, as of October 2020, for preparing financial statements and related disclosure documents filed with the SEC. The Handbook is a portable, affordable, and current resource with the latest SEC rules, forms, interpretations, and other materials specifically related to preparing financial statements and other SEC disclosure documents. The scope is broad enough to serve as a complete reference for anyone whose practice touches on SEC disclosure rules (e.g., transactional attorneys, corporate counsel, corporate governance professionals, etc.). It includes the full-text of: Regulations S-K, S-X, and S-T; selected rules and forms under the 1934 Act; Industry Guides; Staff Accounting Bulletins; and the Codification of Financial Reporting Policies. The 2021 edition includes the following new and updated material: Amendments to financial disclosure requirements for guarantors, issuers of guaranteed securities, and affiliates who collateralize securities to provide investors with material information Revisions to support informed investment decisions regarding variable annuity and variable life insurance contracts via a layered disclosure approach Amendments to the "accelerated filer" and "large accelerated filer" definitions to promote capital formation and reduce unnecessary burdens for certain smaller issuers Modifications to the registration, communications, and offering processes for closed-end investment companies Staff Legal Bulletin 21, which provides the views of SEC staff regarding the application of the Exchange Act antifraud provisions to public statements made by issuers of municipal securities and obligated persons. Amendments to assist registrants in making determinations of whether a subsidiary or an acquired or disposed business is significant and to improve the disclosure requirements Revisions to proxy-solicitation rules so that investors receive more transparent and accurate information Updates to rules regarding statistical disclosure requirements for banking registrants Amendments to the shareholder- proposal rule concerning ownership requirements, documentation, and resubmission thresholds Revisions to auditor independence requirements Staff Accounting Bulletin 119, which updates interpretive guidance to align with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 326, Financial Credit Losses Previous Edition: 2020 SEC Handbook: Rules and Forms for Financial Statements and Related Disclosure, ISBN 9781543806700 Frequently Asked Questions What are the SEC rules? The Plum Book is published by the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs and House Committee on Oversight and Reform alternately after each Presidential election. The Plum Book is used to identify Presidential appointed and other positions within the Federal Government. The publication lists over 9,000 Federal civil service leadership and support positions in the legislative and executive branches of the Federal Government that may be subject to noncompetitive appointment. The duties of many such positions may involve advocacy of Administration policies and programs and the incumbents usually have a close and confidential working relationship with the agency head or other key officials. The Plum Book was first published in 1952 during the Eisenhower administration. When President Eisenhower took office, the Republican Party requested a list of government positions that President Eisenhower could fill. The next edition of the Plum Book appeared in 1960 and has since been published every four years, just after the Presidential election.

This is the definitive and essential text on creating and sponsoring real estate investment groups. Written by a nationally renowned attorney whose practice is limited to the complex legal aspects of these kinds of securities; it is a concise, easily understood and practical guide on how to proceed. It contains all the basics you need to grasp in the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations governing this kind of investment. The text includes details of the SEC's rules governing the Jobs Act. Long term, this federal legislation is likely to be a game-changer in the syndication of commercial real estate. Regulation A+, finalized just before publication, may provide an important new capital-raising option for smaller companies. The portion of the Act that has been in force since September 2013, allowing for public advertising of fundraising, is also thoroughly examined. Author Gene Trowbridge, Esq., CCIM, works as a lawyer for and consultant to individuals and organizations engaged in group sponsorships and conducts seminars and workshops throughout the country. He has also been a distinguished and popular member of the CCIM faculty since 1979, helping to shepherd exceptional practitioners to a professional designation that has been called the Ph.D. of commercial real estate. He has been a group sponsor representing over 850 investors in sixteen real estate syndications.

During live CPE training sessions, and through Excel articles featured in magazines such as the Journal of Accountancy and California CPA Magazine, Jeff Lenning, founder of Excel University, Inc., has shown thousands of CPAs and accounting professionals across the country how to use Excel more effectively. Drawing on his experience as an auditor, a financial analyst in industry, an accounting manager at a public company, and a consultant, he has demonstrated how to leverage Excel in order to improve efficiency by reducing the time it takes to complete job tasks. Written to reach those he won't have the opportunity to meet in one of his CPE sessions, Lenning's series, Excel University: Microsoft Excel Training for CPAs and Accounting Professionals, offers a comprehensive collection of the features, functions, and techniques that are of direct benefit to accountants working in industry, public practice, consulting, or not-for-profit. Concentrating on Excel for Windows, his books offer a hands-on approach to learning and include narrative, screenshots, video content, Excel practice files, and exercises that demonstrate the practical application of the items presented in each chapter. Visit <http://www.excel-university.com> to access the Excel University video library and to download the practice files. Features, functions and techniques are presented in a sequential and progressive manner, so the books are best read in order. In Volume 1, the author presents material and information that will prove useful to every accountant, regardless of the type of work they do. Blown away by the power of Excel, readers are sure to find this series relevant, enlightening, and extremely easy-to-follow.

When strange animals land in Red's yard, he and his friend Slim agree to keep it to themselves. The creatures are unlike any that they've ever seen before, and are - to them - animals that would make a fortune putting on a show at the circus. All the while, their fathers are fretting over the arrival of interstellar diplomats, on whose trade their civilisation may have to rely on to survive. Despite the urgency of the mission, however, neither hide nor hair of them have

The Law Library presents the complete text of the Modernization of Oil and Gas Reporting (US Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation) (SEC) (2018 Edition). Updated as of May 29, 2018 The Commission is adopting revisions to its oil and gas reporting disclosures which exist in their current form in Regulation S-K and Regulation S-X under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as well as Industry Guide 2. The revisions are intended to provide investors with a more meaningful and comprehensive understanding of oil and gas reserves, which should help investors evaluate the relative value of oil and gas companies. In the three decades that have passed since adoption of these disclosure items, there have been significant changes in the oil and gas industry. The amendments are designed to modernize and update the oil and gas disclosure requirements to align them with current practices and changes in technology. The amendments concurrently align the full cost accounting rules with the revised disclosures. The amendments also codify and revise Industry Guide 2 in Regulation S-K. In addition, they harmonize oil and gas disclosures by foreign private issuers with the disclosures for domestic issuers. This ebook contains: - The complete text of the Modernization of Oil and Gas Reporting (US Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation) (SEC) (2018 Edition) - A dynamic table of content linking to each section - A table of contents in introduction presenting a general overview of the structure A fresh retelling of the classic Greek myth about how a very young Hermes uses his wits (and some basic arithmetic) to pull a very clever prank on his older brother, Apollo. Hermes soon realizes that pranks, no matter how clever, can have unexpected consequences, and he learns a lesson about taking responsibility for his behavior. The Gospels and Acts are composed of writings from St. Matthew, St. Mark, St. Luke, St. John and the Book of Acts.
