With respect to things which can be said, this trilogy is one of the most revealing excursions into the nature of the Sufi path that has been written in the last 736 years. There are seven kinds of people ... within and without. There are those who know and know that they know. These rare dimensions of the Self are spiritually realized, and one should seek them out and learn from them. There are those who know but don't know that they know. These individuals are asleep and should be woken up. There are those who don't know and know that they don't know. These souls are able to learn and should be taught. There are those who don't know and don't know that they don't know. There are the ignorant ones, and they should be avoided. There are those who know that they don't know but who, for a variety of reasons, attempt to induce seekers of truth to believe that the former know what they do not. These are the charlatans ... and there are many of them amongst us. There are those people who even when they are shown the truth cannot bear to live with the implications of what has been disclosed and choose to live their lives in various states of denial that become the doorways through which further evil enters into their lives. There are those who seek the truth and try, to the best of their ability, to act judiciously with respect to what has been realized no matter where such

Strengthening your Good Heart gets its name from Ezekiel 26:36 "I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh" and the promise that our Heart is indeed, good.

This book has been several years in the making and is a compilation of 365 daily inspirations along with additional holiday devotions that uses scripture and thoughts that God has placed in our hearts regarding His Word. Each devotional is designed to help apply the truth of God's word in our lives and to help us each walk more intimately with our LORD. This book has been designed to start at any point in the year and to continue at the pace you feel led to. Sam Main and his beautiful bride, Heidi, are the proud parents of four wonderful children. Sam is a graduate of Ball State University and has followed the call of God across the country, from his boyhood home of Indiana to California, back to Indiana and currently resides in North Carolina. In 2005 Sam and Heidi founded Goodheart Ministries, an internet based ministry that focuses in many areas designed to help Christians develop a more intimate relationship with our LORD and Savior. Sam writes a daily devotional called the Bible Verse of the Day (BVD), the BVD originally began as an email sent each weekday to friends and co-workers and been blessed to grow to be received by people worldwide.

Do Your Readers Love Your Characters? No matter what type of fiction you write, it's the characters that draw readers in. In fact, if the reader doesn't care about the characters, the most gripping plot won't carry the day. So how do you get readers to care? Character diagrams, checklists, and charts can only take you so far. You need to know your characters - and love (or hate) them - just as you do real people, which means learning about your characters from the inside out. In Creating Compelling Characters From The Inside Out you'll explore your characters' loves, lives, and values so you can:

- Understand their hopes, fears, and motivations
- Learn what drives them to do what they do
- Create living, breathing characters rather than cardboard cutouts

Using questions and prompts designed to help you peer into your characters' hearts and minds and examples from popular books and classics such as Gone Girl, The Dead Zone, and Pride and Prejudice, bestselling novelist L. M. Lilly (author of the Awakening Supernatural Thriller Series and the Q.C. Davis Mysteries under Lisa M. Lilly) helps you create real, engaging characters that will keep readers turning pages. A dialogue between the Dalai Lama and a group of scientists and philosophers unites research in education, psychology, and neuroscience with Buddhist practice to discuss how to cope with, transform, and eliminate negative emotions. Realizing emptiness or grasping the true nature of reality lies at the heart of the Buddhist path. In this book, Gen Lamrimpa offers practical instruction on Madhyamaka, insight meditation aimed at realizing emptiness. Drawing on his theoretical training as well as his extensive meditative experience, he explains how to use Madhyamaka reasoning to experience the way in which all things exist as dependently related events.
