Teaching Activities Manual for the Catholic Youth Prayer Book

It is so important to write down what you are learning so you will never forget! This is a study journal to help you study and record what you are learning in your scriptures as you study individual CHAPTERS. Chapter by chapter as you study, there is a basic outline on each page that allows you to write down things such as: words you looked up, significant doctrines and principles you found, people in the chapter, questions you asked, other scriptures you looked up, insights from study guides, and your own personal thoughts and insights. Start now and record all of the amazing things the scriptures are teaching you right now in your life! Plus... what amazing gift to leave your posterity! There is also a companion journal available that helps you focus on individual TOPICS. The two journals are complimentary in nature and organized in a way that you can reference your journals to each other. So if you study a few different chapters about "Faith" and write all about it in your CHAPTER journal (but they are scattered throughout your journal), you can reference them to each other as well as to your page in your TOPIC journal so everything is nicely organized and easy to find! Both types of journals come with a set of instructions and a "Table of Contents" in the front so you can title your pages and find things easily.

This collection of 365 journal writing prompts is meant to stop writer's block in its tracks. With enough prompts to last the whole year long, you'll be writing every day on a variety of subjects. With some introspection, some humor and a view to the future, you'll be able to practice your writing and learn more about yourself. Author Bryan Cohen's books of writing prompts and writing advice have sold more than 15,000 copies.

Cultivate an Attitude of Gratitude
Writing in a gratitude journal may only take a few minutes of your day, but doing so has the power to turn your entire life around. The Law of Attraction says that whatever you focus on grows stronger. By making a habit to focus on the positive side of things, even something you might label as negative, you are tapping into the secret of living a happy life. When we start counting the little things that we treasure, things that may otherwise escape our attention in the chaos of daily life, not only are we becoming more positive and loving, but more giving and appreciative as well. Our happiness is no one's responsibility but our own; when we stop reacting to the people and circumstances around us, we're taking back control of our lives in order to steer it in the direction we want to go. Giving thanks to the universe is giving love, and what we give inevitably comes back to us. Have an attitude of gratitude. Once you make a habit out of appreciating all the gifts in life, big or small, you'll begin to attract more positive people and situations. Bad habits and former worries will disappear, replaced by faith and good feeling toward yourself and others. Starting a gratitude journal is easy. All you need is a pen, a notebook, and a moment to lay down your appreciation for what you've been given in life. This book contains journal prompts on 52 different topics, each one beginning with an inspirational gratitude quote from great men and women of the past and present. You can focus on one topic a week if you wish—that's enough to last you a year. Or you may pick and choose a prompt at random if you are looking for inspiration and new ideas on any given day.

This leads to a struggle for counselors to adequately address tough and relevant issues.
