Travel Diary for Kids Holidays are about recharging your batteries while for the kids it's all about fun - it's about building sandcastles, playing in the hotel pool, eating ice creams on the beach and having a good time. But did you know that holidays can advance your child's brain? It is said that when you go on holiday you exercise certain areas of the brain which would otherwise be left unused when at home. So why not take the opportunity and give them activities to enhance their knowledge and record their experiences so that they will remember their holiday for years to come.
