Volumes 7-77, 80-83 include 13th-83rd, 86th-89th annual report of the American Baptist missionary union.

Missionary, do you dread writing prayer letters? Has your lack of desire to write these reports caused friction between you and your supporting churches? If so, you're not alone...but it doesn't have to be this way! In his book, The Anatomy of an Effective Prayer Letter, Pastor Adam Riveiro weaves his experience both as an independent Baptist church planter and a writer to show missionaries how to write the type of prayer letters that supporting churches want to read. Through his own personal experiences writing monthly prayer letters for over a decade, he shows that the process doesn't have to be as time-consuming or difficult as you may think. Through the pages of this booklet, you'll find the anatomy of the most effective missionary prayer letters, including... The Purpose of Prayer Letters The People of Prayer Letters The Pattern of Effective Prayer Letters The Pitfalls of Prayer Letters The Perks of Effective Prayer Letters Adam Riveiro lives south of Boston in beautiful Easton, Massachusetts. Together, he and his wife Dianne serve at Liberty Baptist Church where Adam has been the pastor since the church was founded in 2013. They have four wonderful children: Bethany, Kaylee, AJ, and Payton.

Autograph Letters and Historical Documents

In 1830, at the age of forty, Jean-Claude Colin accepted the call of his colleagues to take charge of the Society of Mary (Marists). He had joined this project as a seminarian in Lyons, France, in 1816, along with Marcellin Champagnat, future founder of the Marist teaching brothers. Since ordination, he had been an assistant priest at Cerdon (photo below), preached revival missions in rural districts and been principal of a high school-seminary. Colin always insisted that he was only a temporary superior until someone more capable could take over. Yet, by the time he resigned in 1854, he had obtained papal approval of the priests' branch, established the Society firmly in France, especially in education, and sent fifteen expeditions of missionary priests and brothers to the remote and scattered islands of the southwest Pacific. There they planted the Catholic Church in New Zealand, Wallis and Futuna, Tonga, Samoa, Fiji and New Caledonia. Between his resignation and his death in 1875, Colin wrote Constitutions for the priests and brothers of the Society of Mary and for the Marist sisters. He also left a rich spiritual teaching. For this achievement, the Society regards him, despite his reluctance, as its Founder.

In this carefully crafted commentary, Peter O'Brien distinctively harvests the results of recent scholarship on the letter to the Hebrews, especially in relation to the genre of the document and the flow of its discourse. O'Brien views this letter as a "word of exhortation"--A homily or sermon that skillfully interweaves exposition and exhortation, encouraging faithful perseverance in the light of the superlative final word that God has spoken in Christ.

Love-Letter from Jesus: Come to the Savior is an inspirational, transformational book, permeating with the love of God, and His desire for a deep, intimate, personal relationship with you. While on a missionary trip, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, Carol Santoiemma received a Word from the Lord: Love-"Letter from Jesus," which she used as a template for this book. Quotes of "Love-Letter" are interspersed throughout the book; along with many corresponding Scripture verses, and brief author commentaries. It flows with a consistent beckoning to "Come to the Savior;" consequently, it will draw you directly to the Throne Room of God's love, and the fountain of His Grace, His undeserved favor. This book can serve to help Christians re-establish their relationship with Jesus; or, it can help non-Christians learn the basics of God's love, and His plan of Salvation. It is also an excellent tool for missionaries, study groups, Evangelists, or anyone wishing to partake in the Great Commission. Dear reader, Carol prayed for you, and every reader personally, that God will touch your heart, through "Love-Letter." "Come to the Savior," and see what answer to prayer awaits for you! Carol Santoiemma is a born again Christian, Sunday school teacher, and missionary. She's served the Lord in Evangelistic, medical, prison, and other ministries. She is also a licensed nurse, specializing in Hospice nursing. She enjoys freelance writing and sharing Evangelistic material as her new mission field. She has written Love-Letter from Jesus to You: Come to the Savior to encourage her readers to accept Jesus as their Personal Lord and Savior, and to have an intimate relationship with Him.

How to Write Missionary Letters

Inspiring Stories of Courage from Christians Serving Around the World

This collection of letters written by and to the missionaries, as well as their journal entries, illustrates the life of the mission, from the everyday complications of building and maintaining a community far from urban areas, to the navigation of the bureaucratic policies of the federal government and the American Board, to the ideological differences of the Pawnees' multiple missionaries and the ensuing rift within the community. These writings provide a unique and personal portrayal of this small white community in the heart of the Pawnees' domain.

A brand-new year's worth o f inspiring stories from the front lines of faith – 366 new devotions from missionaries around the globe. In these pages, you'll hike mountain paths, jolt down rutted desert roads, and pick your way through teeming markets and crowded urban slums. You'll meet boisterous children, worried parents, anxious teens, and curious seniors—all hungry, whether they know it or not, for the Good News. You'll witness moments of looming danger and crushing heartache, moments of shining hope and pure miracle. You'll be inspired anew by those who dare to obey God's call to take His story to the ends of the earth. And you'll be encouraged to pray for those who dare to open their hearts not only to the message but also to the One who calls and sustains them. The art of any story is the truth that it paints. I pray you'll find this book chock-full of truth. I pray that every single entry causes words of Scripture to jump off the page and onto the pavement of authentic human experiences, causing you not only to see their lives differently but also to change the way you see your own. – from the Introduction by Beth Moore All royalties for the Voices of the Faithful series support the work of the International Mission Board.

The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Melanesia and Micronesia, 1850 to 1875 is the result of Father Ralph Wiltgen's years of archival work in Rome and at the headquarters of religious orders who worked in Micronesia and Melanesia. It follows his first historical book on the subject, The Founding of the Roman Catholic Church in Oceania: 1825 to 1850, but narrows the focus. The first book dealt with the whole of Oceania and emphasized developments in Polynesia. This book concentrates on Melanesia and Micronesia from 1850 to 1875, the period immediately before the work of large numbers of Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, Marists, and Divine Word Missionaries assumed great momentum in the period between 1875 and 1914. Micronesia is a huge area of the world, made up of numerous culturally and politically distinct groups of atolls ranging over about 1,400 miles from the northwest to the southeast. Its peoples speak scores of mutually unintelligible though related languages on such island groups as the Marshalls, the Gilberts, Nauru, and Kiribati. Far more heavily populated is Melanesia, another huge area of the Pacific where as many as one thousand distinct languages are spoken in an arc of islands extending from just below the equator in a boomerang shape from today's Indonesian controlled Papua and independent Papua New Guinea on the island of New Guinea in the northwest all the way along the Solomon Island chain to 25i south latitude to the southeast. In this book, Wiltgen shows himself the undisputed master of the archives of the Propaganda Fide, the Vatican's chief mission agency and the religious orders that provided missionaries, all of which is supplemented by his attention to the lives of key people of the period. He shows the Propaganda now prodding missionary orders to take on the difficult work of evangelizing these areas and on other occasions struggling to keep up with and understand fast-moving events and the colorful characters--both ecclesiastical and among colonial administrators, rogue sea captains, and indigenous leaders. Wiltgen lets the contemporary records speak for themselves, though one can imagine his arched brow and mischievous grin as he selects exactly the right quote to describe now an act of missionary heroism and now an act of self-promotion. It is a masterful book, making available the early history of one of Catholicism's greatest missionary successes, helping the reader understand both the idealism of the vision and the way in which concrete events and people affected the outcome.
