This beautiful and inspiring book is an authoritative and timely account of our planet's natural wonders, explaining how and why our bodies and brains benefit from being in nature, as well as the importance of valuing and protecting them for future generations. In each chapter - exploring forests, rivers, mountains, deserts and coasts - Lonely Planet offers a wealth of knowledge on why they're such enriching places to explore and where in the world we can experience the natural world through forest bathing, mountain hikes and wild swimming. From Canada's mysterious and untamed Great Bear Rainforest to the spiritually significant mountain of Kailash in Tibet, unearth 50 destinations all around the world which take you right back to the heart of the natural world. With a combination of beautiful illustration and photography throughout, as well as contributions from award-winning travel writers such as Adam Weymouth (Kings of the Yukon) and Adam Skolnick (One Breath), this unique coffee table book is the quintessential guide to helping you reconnect with nature.

Escorted tours are highly regimented and expensive averaging $300-$500 per person per day excluding airfare. Bob Kaufman knows. For over 30 years he ran National Travel Vacations, Inc. a tour operator who offered escorted tours on contract to travel agents. If you don't want to be told that you must be on the bus at 8 AM, and that you have only one hour to shop in Ronda, this book is for you. If you don't want to feel stressed out driving in a strange country, where everyone drives exceptionally fast, this book is for you. If you like waking up when you want, eating when you want and spending as much time as you want on each sight, this book will show you how to do it. Bob Kaufman's "Spain The Best Places to See by Rail" is the essential book you need to plan an in-expensive rail tour of Spain travelling on the newest state-of-the-art ultra-modern high-speed trains. This book is made for seniors and the younger generations, who are not comfortable or care not to take escorted tours or drive in a foreign country. For seniors, the book is easier to read because it is printed in a larger and bold type than normal travel books. The author outlines several major itineraries which include: Barcelona, Madrid, Seville, Cordoba, Granada, Malaga and the Costa del Sole in addition to Santiago d Compostela and, Bilbao Kaufman describes each itinerary and just how to plan it. The author includes day trips via rail from Barcelona, Madrid and the Costa del Sol so you can base yourself at one city without checking in and out of hotels. The author has a full chapter devoted to hotels near the train stations so you don't have to walk more than 10-15 minutes to your hotel. He even explains how to evaluate and choose each hotel along the way. The book is easy to read (it's Kaufman's fifth book) and chuck full of information needed to plan your in-expensive rail trip including websites on how to obtain your rail and attraction tickets for the the Alhambra, El Escorial and the Palace in Madrid. This will save you hours of time and money on the internet. Kaufman includes: tables and hand-drawn, maps, places of interest, hotels and recommended restaurants from almost 13 trips to this beautiful country. The book is modeled after his first best selling book. "ITALY The Best Places to See by Rail. Use this book for planning, and take it along with you and a good tour book of SPAIN and you will not be disappointed with your vacation.

Do take a look at the reviews on the rear cover of this book and also on Bob's other books.
