Contemporary concerns in mathematics education recognize that in the increasingly technological and globalized world, with

Online Library Maths Paper 2 Grade 12 March 2012

concomitant change in population demographics (e.g. immigration, urbanization) and a change in the status of languages (e.g. English as a dominant language of science and technology) multilingualism

in classrooms is a norm rather than an exception. Shifts in perspective also view language not simply as an instrument for cognition with all learners equipped with this instrument in service of learning, although clearly in the classroom that remains of importance. Rather, it is now also being acknowledged that language use is inherently political, so that the language that gets official recognition in the classroom is invariably the language of the powerful elite, or the dominant societal language, or in the case of postcolonial contexts the language of the colonisers. From this socio-political role of language in learning quite different issues
