So when he's finally able to save up enough money for two pups to call his own—Old Dan and Little Ann—he's ecstatic. In a matter that times are tough; together they'll roam the hills of the Ozarks. Soon Billy and his hounds become the finest hunting dogs in the valley. Stories of their great achievements spread throughout the region, and the combination of Old Dan's brawn, Little Ann's speed, and Billy's sheer will seems unbeatable. The beloved "New York Times"-bestselling author of the modern classic "Frindle" celebrates books and the joy of reading with this school story about a sixth-grade bookworm who starts a book club solely to have a place to read.

Golding's iconic 1954 novel, now with a new foreword by Lois Lowry, remains one of the greatest books ever written for young people. An unforgettable classic for readers of any age. This edition includes a new section of Suggestions for Further Reading by Jennifer Buehler. At the dawn of the next world war, a plane crashes on an uncharted island, stranding a group of schoolboys. At first, with no adult supervision, their freedom is something to celebrate. This far from civilization they can do anything they want. Anything. But as order collapses and strange howls echo in the night, as terror begins its reign, the hope of adventure seems as far removed from reality as the boys are from home. Rescued.
