The moment you think you see where Sailing Away is going to take you, I promise: you don't. These deft, sometimes daft, consistently darksome stories are as impossible to outguess and bewilderingly interesting to ride as the postmodern Pacific that inspires them. --David James Duncan About the Author(s) Richard Morgan's short stories have appeared in numerous literary publications and have won him a number of distinctions, including the Kay Snow prize for fiction and a National Endowment for the Arts Creative Writing Fellowship. He also regularly contributes nonfiction articles to martial arts magazines and is currently at work on a book about the martial arts. He lives in Portland, Oregon, with his wife and daughter.

Boating Skills and Seamanship High Performance Sailing Faster Racing Techniques Thomas Reed

With the same rigorous observation (natural and social), invigorating stylishness, and encyclopedic learning that he brought to his National Book Award-winning Bad Land, Jonathan Raban conducts readers along the Inside Passage from Seattle to Juneau. The physical distance is 1,000 miles of difficult-and often treacherous-water, which Raban navigates solo in a 35-foot sailboat. But Passage to Juneau also traverses a gulf of centuries and cultures: the immeasurable divide between the Northwest's Indians and its first European explorers-- between its embattled fishermen and loggers and its pampered new class. Along the way, Raban offers captivating discourses on art, philosophy, and navigation and an unsparing narrative of personal loss.
