In Seven Things God Hates, you will discover that God is not only a God who loves but also a God who hates. Just as divine love permeates the pages of scripture, so does divine hatred/divine hatred for evil and evildoers who act contrary to the will of God. The Bible emphatically states that God is love (1 John 4:8). However, he is also a God who has a holy abhorrence for both sin and specific sinners whose sins are an abomination in His sight. The whole thrust of the Old and New Testament hinges on the love of God for man and His disdain for sin. The epitome of Gods love for man is seen in the person of Jesus Christ, the gift of God to mankind. Gods hatred for evil and wickedness is also evident. It is an often-ignored characteristic of the Lord, but a divine characteristic nonetheless. This study examines seven particular things God hates that are expressed in Proverbs 1:16-19 and further expanded on throughout scripture. Get inspired by Dr. Talley's teachings on the seven things God hates. His teachings will give you a better understanding of the mind of God and enlighten your perspective about the love of God and His disgust for sin.

For centuries there has been controversy over the role of the wife. So much so, that it is difficult to know who to believe. The Proper Role of the Wife is a research based study of the wife's role with a Scriptural answer. It dives into the heated arguments of the past and present from well known philosophers, women's liberals, conservatives, and biblical scholars. The data compiled will equip the Christian counselor with the proper perspective and enlighten readers as they explore the discrepancy and divergence from the Biblical patterns of Scripture to the solutions presented. Married women and especially women of the Christian faith wrestle with understanding their role as a wife. For example: ■ What does it mean to leave and cleave? ■ Is the Bible out-dated as it relates to submission? ■ What is a helpmeet, and is it really necessary? ■ Are there any set rules for how a wife should behave? ■ How is a wife supposed to fit in the Church? Even though all of these questions are clearly outlined in Scripture with guiding principles that delineate the proper role and behavior of women in marriage, the actual role and behavior of women has diverged significantly from the pattern outlined in Scripture. In an effort to help rectify this problem,

Rebekah Prewitt contrasts various world views with the Scripture. One by one, you will see how the answers of the "experts" come into conflict with God's Word and undermine the principles that Christians hold most dear.

When we read an English translation of the Bible we define the words within it according to our modern vocabulary allowing our culture and language to influence how we read and interpret the Bible. The Bible was written by ancient Hebrews whose culture and language was very different from our own and must be read and interpreted through their eyes. When we define the names of God using our culture and language we lose the Hebraic meanings behind the original Hebrew names of God. Consequently the true nature and character of God is hidden behind the veil of time and culture. By understanding the various names of God through the vocabulary and language of the ancient Hebrews, the nature and character of God is revealed to us in a new light. The prophet Zechariah described the character of God with the words "sh'mo ehhad" translated as His Name is One (Zechariah 14:9). This phrase beautifully describes the character of God from a Hebraic perspective that is lost to us through translation and unfamiliarity with ancient Hebrew culture.
