NEWLY REVISED and expanded 2016! Becoming a Notary loan signing agent can change your life by offering you a new lucrative career. As an independent contractor, this home-based business adapts to either full-time or part-time hours. Once you become a Notary in your state, all the information and training you need to become a Notary signing agent is in this very detailed and complete home study course / business guide. Over the last several years I've had the pleasure of coaching many new agents in all the important details required by the loan industry. This course and manual is a direct result of that real-time, one-on-one coaching. And once you've completed the course, it becomes a field manual to refer to as often as you need to. I feel very passionate about upholding the integrity of our dual role--that of commissioned Notary Public and loan signing agent. I hope this training starts you off on a lucrative and fulfilling new career. The industry needs well-trained agents. That's you! Please note: Loan Signing Agent certification is not legally required to perform loan signings. Simply being a commissioned Notary Public is all that is legally needed to notarize any document. However, some title companies and signing agencies now require certification as proof that a notary is familiar and skilled with the process. There is no legal entity governing signing agent courses or certification. Certification only shows that you have taken a course and/or passed a final exam in a particular field of study. It does not imply any type of official or governmental licensing or certification.

Mobile Notaries have been a recognized profession for many years, providing a valuable service to those who can't go to a Notary, or just prefer the convenience of having the Notary come to them. Mobile Notaries typically charge for their mobile services in addition to any notarization fees. In relatively recent years, the loan and real estate industry has developed a need for Notary loan signing agents who guide a borrower through the process of signing the paperwork in a loan package, as well as witnessing and notarizing certain documents included in that packet. This provides an even greater potential for income to the mobile Notary. However, mobile Notaries can still make a very good living notarizing a myriad of non-loan documents without entering the loan signing industry at all. Becoming a Notary Public as an add-on service to your current employment or business is a good way to start your mobile Notary service. Not only will it give you an edge over competition for company positions and promotions, but will start you off with contacts and clients that will help your business quickly grow from part-time to full-time. This guide will show you how to start your own business as a mobile Notary Public either part-time or full-time.

How to Start, Run & Grow a Part-Time Notary Public & Loan Signing Agent Business DIY Startup Guide For All 50 States & DC If you can work 2-3 hours a day and bring home around 50K/year, would you consider that to be a good side business? If so, would you want to give that a try? Let me explain how. The profession of notary signing agent is becoming more and more popular lately simply because there are more transactions and loans being approved via online and from companies across the country. Even until ten years ago, if you wanted to get a loan, you would apply at your local banks, but not anymore, you can apply online to various online banks and lending institutions who offer better terms and rates than most of your typical local banks. But anytime there is a loan closing where the lending institution does not have a local office; they call on local loan signing agents who are also a notary public. The job of the notary/loan signing agent is to meet with the applicants in person, and have them sign and notarize their loan closing documents then send the documents back to the lender. A typical loan signing can take around an hour to an hour and a half and the compensation ranges from $100-$200 for each closing. Since all Notary signing agents are also Notary public by default, you can also offer your notary service to your local community and pick some extra income. If you had to notarize any documents lately, then you know a typical notary charges between $10- $25 to notarize a document. Best of all, you don't have to give up your full-time job or business to start this business. You can always offer your services just in the evenings and weekends and only when you are not busy doing things with your family. Lets' say you only offer your services on the weekend and do about two closings a week which is around 4 hours of work. You can make anywhere from $200-$400 each week. Let's say you make the average of $300 a week that would mean you are making $1,200 extra each month which is $14,400 per year. Tell me isn't that a great side income to have? If this interests you enough, here is what I show you in this book. In Part -1 What is Notarization The Notarization Process Difference Between Notary Public and Notary Signing Agent What Certificates and Training You will Need Five Benefits Becoming a Notary Signing Agent The cost to become a Notary Signing Agent How to get Started Supplies you will need Expenses to Consider Insurance & Bonds You will Need Running a Notary Signing Agent Business How to get your First Assignment How to get in and out of State clients Eight Ways You Can Make Extra Money Detail Step By Step Process to Become a Notary Signing Agent How to Renew Your Certificates In Part -2 I outlined the exact requirements you will need to fulfill for each of the 50 States along with District of Columbia.

There are over 4.5 million notaries in the United States - public servants appointed by their states to ensure the authenticity and integrity of the document signing process. Innovation has long overlooked the notarial process, but its time for transformation has finally come. Remote online notarization allows documents to be notarized in electronic form with the signer signing with an electronic signature and appearing before a commissioned electronic notary online via audio-video technology. This allows anyone with an Internet connection to get documents signed and notarized online. In this book, we'll set out to describe remote online notarization and its impact. We'll also cover how you can use it, why it's more secure and accessible than traditional notarial processes, and how it's transforming an industry forever.

A notary is a public official responsible for independently verifying signatures and oaths. Depending on how a document is written, a notarization serves to affirm the identity of a signer and the fact that they personally executed their signature. A notarization, or notarial act, officially documents the identity of a party to a document or transaction and the occasion of the signing that others can rely upon, usually at face value. A notary's authentication is intended to be reliable, to avoid the inconvenience of having to locate a signer to have them personally verify their signature, as well as to document the execution of a document perhaps long after the lifetime of the signer and the notary. An oath is a sworn statement. In most cases a person will swear that a written statement, oral statement, or testimony they are about to give is true. A notary can document that the notary administered an oath to an individual.

The Department of Licensing has worked to keep the notary public application process as simple as possible. A prospective notary need only submit a complete application, proof of a $10,000 surety bond, and appropriate fees to the Department of Licensing in order to begin the process. Once an applicant has completed all application requirements and proven that he or she is eligible, the Department will have a new certificate of commission mailed out promptly. New in 2018, notaries public can also apply for an electronic records notary public endorsement, which allows the notary to perform notarial acts on electronic documents as well as paper documents. The application process is similar to the application process for the commission, and can be done at the same time or separately.
