Painting The Sand

The Newton Public School system in Newton, Massachusetts, offers a lesson that focuses on mandalas, which are sacred sand paintings made by Buddhist monks of Tibet. The students create simple sand paintings in the style of mandalas. This lesson was created by teachers at Angier School and is suitable for elementary art classes. The authors list the materials needed, highlight the lesson procedures, provide links to related sites, and include background information. This lesson is part of a collection of

Set in the aftermath of the 1972 Munich Olympics massacre, this darkly sophisticated literary thriller by one of Germany's most celebrated writers is now available in the US for the first time. North midst of it all, a man with no memory tries to evade his armed pursuers. Who are they? What do they want from him? If he could just recall his own identity he might have a chance of working it out. . . .

This darkly sophisticated literary thriller, the last novel Wolfgang Herrndorf completed before his
