ABOUT
THE TEST The

Advanced

Placement Program

is designed to allow
high school students

to pursue college-

level studies while attending high school. The three-hour five-minute AP U.S. History exam is usually given to high school students who have completed a year's study in a college-level U.S. History course. The test results are then used to determine the awarding of course credit and/or advanced course placement in college. According to the College Board, students taking this exam are called upon to demonstrate "systematic factual knowledge" and bring to bear critical, two sections: 1)

Multiple-Choice:

This section is composed of 80 multiple-choice questions designed to gauge your ability to understand and analyze U.S. history from the Colonial period to the present. The majority of the questions, however, are based on 19th- and 20th-century history. This section tests factual knowledge, scope of preparation, and knowledge-based analytical skills.

You'll have 55 minutes to complete this section, which accounts for 50

SCORING THE

EXAM The multiple-choice section of the exam is scored by crediting each correct answer with one point and deducting one-fourth of a point for each incorrect answer. You will neither receive a credit nor suffer a deduction for unanswered questions. The free-response essays are graded by instructors and professors from across the country who come together and 15 the highest. Each topic-based essay receives a score from 0 to 9. These scores are concealed so that each grader is unaware of the previous graders' assessments. When the essays have been graded completely, the scores are averaged-one score for each

essay-so that the
free-response
section generates
three scores. The total weight of the
free-response
section is 50
percent of the total score. Your work in the multiple-choice
section counts for the other 50 percent. Each year, grades fluctuate slightly because the grading scale is adjusted to take into account the performance of the total AP U.S. History test-taker population. When used with the corresponding chart, the scoring method

we present here will

score you would

exam. SCORING
THE MULTIPLE-

For the multiple-choice section, use

THE FREE- RESPONSE

SECTION For the
free-response
section, use this

Attack Dbq Documents

formula to calculate
your raw score:

DBQ + Essay #1 +
Essay #2 + = raw score (round to the nearest whole

number) You may want to give your essays three

different grades,
such as a 13, 10,
and an 8, and then

calculate your score

Download Free Pearl Harbor

three ways: as if you did well, average, and poorly. This will give you a safe estimate of how you will do on the actual exam. Try to be objective about grading your own essays. If possible, have a friend, teacher, or parent grade them for you.

Attack Dbq Documents

Make sure your essays follow all of the AP requirements before you assess the score. The statistical formulations used by the AP Program preclude our REA practice-test scoring system from precisely replicating the procedures and determinations of the AP Program. Bear in mind that the cut-off point between each of the five AP grades typically shifts slightly from year to year. This occurs both because one year's exam cannot be expected to be exactly as difficult

as another year's
and because no two
test-taker groups
can be expected to be equally strong.

THE COMPOSITE SCORE To obtain your composite score, use this method:  $1.13 \times$
multiple choice raw
score = weighted
