Missionary stories of profound miracles in other nations abound, but what about in my nation, my city, or my home? Testimonies of past miracles are prolific, but where are they in my generation? Miracle Invasion includes modern examples of spiritual gifts in action and true stories that will rekindle expectation that the Holy Spirit is still alive and well, working in our time, on our continent, whenever we welcome his presence. In Miracle Invasion, you'll see: God is at work for your good—today! All things are possible with God. God is no respecter of persons. You matter to God. You are on the brink of a miracle, so don't give up. The Holy Spirit has not forgotten about the twenty-first century church. People in North America are experiencing God's power in authentic demonstrations of the Spirit. We serve an extraordinary God who loves to act supernaturally on behalf of ordinary people.

FROM DEATH INTO REAL LIFE Gene, Earline & Marie Moody 14930 Jefferson Highway Baton Rouge, LA 70817-5217 1-225-755-8870 INTERNET Stan & Elizabeth Madrak DemonBuster.com BloodOfJesus@DemonBuster.com Gene B. Moody BeDelivered.com Gene.Moody@BeDelivered.com This is the testimony of my family: Earline, my wife; Marie, my daughter; and Byron, my son. We were married in 1955 by Dr. Lee Roberson, who had a practice of not marrying anyone who was not a Christian. Little did we realize then what a difference it makes for both spouses to be Christians and for God to control your family. We give God the credit for our successful marriage of 43 years. We were average Christians who never had really done anything very bad or very good. Although I had held most of the positions in the church, there was not much love in my heart for others. Nor did we see much love in the many churches we attended as I moved around the United States following the engineering profession. Worship services were more of a formality. Earline had a number of miscarriages. Thyroid and parathyroid were completely removed as a teenager. The doctors said that we could not have any children. Earline began praying, and in 1960 God rewarded us with a beautiful boy we named Byron. Two years later, God gave us a beautiful baby girl we named Marie. They were all the children we could have because of Earline's health. We went to traditional churches. They did not teach us about the miracle-working God. We did not see the miracles of God for twenty years. After several medical checkups culminating in a $500.00 one in 1973, it was conclusively proven that Earline had no thyroid or parathyroid. According to the doctors, she could not be alive, but was doing fine at 40 years of age. We later recognized that our children were medical miracles. We had a near perfect family for 12 1/2 years, then tragedy struck. Byron climbed a tree and touched a 4000-volt power line and fell 50 feet. We really began to see God at work in our lives. I would like for Earline to tell what happened. We still don't understand why it had to happen or what all God has done for us. On May 22, 1973, my world came to a crushing halt! As the children played, two neighbors came over to join me for tea. The children came in for cookies and went out again. Byron stood by my chair, his arm on my shoulder, gave me a little hug and said some day he would climb a tree to the very top. Turned, on the run, and said, "You're a nice mom," went out the door and climbed a tall cottonwood. Soon, one of the children said that Byron had fallen out of the tree. One look at Byron and I knew only God could help him. Marie and I began to pray as never before. Nothing in my life had prepared me for this moment. No faith in God rose to meet this crisis. On the way to the hospital, we became sure that God didn't love us or He would never have let this happen. Having nothing else to cling to, we clung to God anyway and Psalm 50:15. At the hospital, I accused God of not living, not caring, not being. He so lovingly said, "I love you, Gene and Marie, more than you love each other, more than you love yourselves. I love Byron more than you do." I couldn't believe Him. I told God if He didn't do something to prove He loved us and that Byron was in Heaven, I would kill them and myself. I told Him if Byron was not in Heaven I didn't want any part of it either. With all this fussing at God, I could only feel love coming to me. He said, "All things are His including the tree, the power line and all the earth" according to Psalm 50:10-12. I heard myself telling Satan to remove death from Byron in the name of Jesus. Byron lived on as a miracle. I didn't know this was possible (rebuking Satan in Jesus' name). After Gene arrived, I told all God had said. We could not believe that God really was talking. We didn't know He talked today. As we prayed together, God assured us of His love and His everlasting knowledge.

Can Anyone See In The Spirit? "Seeing in the Spirit Made Simple" provides clear, simple, biblical instruction that will help you see into the invisible world of the spirit. It is the second book in The Kingdom of God Made Simple series; a self-study course designed to train believers how to live out the fullness of the life offered to us as heirs of God's kingdom. The predominant view in the church today holds that seeing in the spirit is a rare gift given to only a few special people, or an anointing we must seek. With the same straightforward, down-to-earth style used in "Divine Healing Made Simple," the author holds this view up to the light of scripture, and suggests that it has no biblical basis. Rather than being a gift given by God to only a few people, seeing in the spirit is an innate ability we all possess, which lies undeveloped in most of us. Through prayer, training and exercise, this ability can be awakened and used by virtually anyone. The author provides Bible-based teaching along with dozens of testimonies and illustrations. There are also practical exercises at the end of the chapters to help develop your ability to see in the spirit. Praying Medic and his wife have only recently learned how to see in the spirit. Come along as they re-trace the path they've taken that has led them to see angels, demons and the heavenly realms. Whether you're a seasoned seer or a newbie, you'll learn from the experiences and insights they share. This book is about the change of Battersea, which is a large district of south London, England, in the London Borough of Wandsworth. It is centered 3.5 miles southwest of Charing Cross and extends along the south bank of the River Thames. After centuries passed, London was likened to an old ship that had been repaired and rebuilt until its original wood could not be found. The changes and evolution of this so-called "town upon the lake" are really amazing.

*In the first critical study of the major theologians of pentecostalism, one of the fastest growing and most influential religious traditions in the world, Christopher A. Stephenson establishes four original categories to classify pentecostal theologians' methodologies in systematic/constructive theology. The four categories are based respectively on: the arrangement of biblical texts; the relationship between theology and Christian spirituality; doctrine concerning the kingdom of God; and pneumatology as a basis for philosophical and fundamental theology. Stephenson analyzes each methodological type and suggests a pentecostal theological method that builds on the strengths of each. He then offers his own, original contribution, arguing for a reciprocal relationship between pentecostal spirituality and doctrine that follows the pattern of lex orandi, lex credendi, and develops a doctrine of the Lord's supper as a demonstration of this reciprocal relationship. Types of Pentecostal Theology provides critical insight into such fundamental issues as the relationship between theology and philosophy, the dynamic between scripture and tradition, and the similarities and differences between recent pentecostal theology and other currents in contemporary theology. When we stay true to our covenant with God, we can be sure that no matter what storms come in life, it is God's everlasting covenant of peace that will bring us through victoriously and sustain us.*

Discover God's Everlasting Covenant of Peace and Protection Covenant is the foundation of all of God's interactions with us. Deliverance out of trouble is God's mercy extended to those who are in covenant with Him. When we stay true to our covenant with God, we can be sure that no matter what happens in life, it is God's everlasting promises of peace that will sustain us and bring us through victoriously.

Creativity and play erupt in the most solemn of everyday worlds as individuals reshape traditional forms in the light of changing historical circumstances. Contributors include Barbara A. Babcock, Edward M. Bruner, James W. Fernandez, Don Handelman, Smadar Lavie, José E. The Wilderness is not a place to be feared. It will be a place of bearing the fruit of Jesus and His ministry for the true believer through the power of the Spirit. {Isa.32:15} until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest. {51:3} For Jehovah hath comforted Zion; he hath comforted all her waste places, and hath made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Jehovah; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody. It will be a place of peace and rest through faith in God's Word. For Israel, as a type of the Church, it was a place of deliverance and rest from the Beast kingdom. {Eze.34:25} And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. It is a place of supernatural provision. {Rev.12:14} And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. Be encouraged by this faith building-book.

First published in 1529, Martin Luther's "The Small Catechism" was written for the education of children in religious doctrine. It reviews The Ten Commandments, The Lord's Prayer, the Sacraments of Baptism, the Alter and the Eucharist, along with other important religious and biblical tenets in a clear, concise and easy to understand format. It has long been considered as one of Martin's most important writings and is seen as an authoritative text on the beliefs of the Lutheran Church. "The Small Catechism" was required reading for confirmation into the church for centuries. Luther distilled the Church's teachings down to their most essential elements so that pastors and parents alike can pass the Lutheran doctrine and tradition down to the next generation. Remarkable for its wealth of information in a condensed and accessible form, Luther's masterpiece of religious instruction has continued to provide guidance and answers to both the young and old. "The Small Catechism" remains an important and essential addition to any collection of religious literature, as well as a useful and practical daily prayer book for families and churches. This edition is printed on premium acid-free paper.

In A Dream, In A Vision of Night is a book that emphasizes the importance of God's guidance to His people through dreams, visions, and trance like pictures we receive in the night. This book explores and teaches what the Bible says about dreams, whether or not dreams come only from God, what symbols in dreams mean according to the scriptures and more. Many dreams are given as examples of prophetic dreams. Includes a symbols dictionary.

In this study of the rabbinic heretics who believed in "Two Powers in Heaven," Alan Segal explores some relationships between rabbinic Judaism, Merkabah mysticism, and early Christianity. "Two Powers in Heaven" was a very early category of heresy. It was one of the basic categories by which the rabbis perceived the new phenomenon of Christianity and one of the central issues over which Judaism and Christianity separated. Segal reconstructs the development of the heresy through prudent dating of the stages of the rabbinic traditions. The basic heresy involved interpreting scripture to say that a principal angelic or hypostatic manifestation in heaven was equivalent to God. The earliest heretics believed in two complementary powers in heaven, while later heretics believed in two opposing powers in heaven. Segal stresses the importance of perceiving the relevance of rabbinic material for solving traditional problems of New Testament and gnostic scholarship, and at the same time maintains the necessity of reading those literatures for dating rabbinic material. Please note that "Two Powers in Heaven" was previously published by Brill in hardback, ISBN 90 04 05453 7 (no longer available).

The book includes seventy-five photographs, fifteen maps, numerous tables and charts, illustrations, and bibliographies.
