encourages its
student users to discover their own innate
strengths as well
as improve areas
of lesser strengths that will help them
achieve their hopes, dreams,
and goals in their lives. The lessons are divided into three sections: Being an Honorable Person, Self-Discovery, and Self-Empowerment, and are a result of the curriculum the author has developed for the children he teaches and

mentors at Jasper

children from ages 8-14 about
character
development,

nature, and poetry. Inspired
by the children,
he has written
two books that
contain life lessons: The Large Rock and
the Little Yew
teaches the virtues of
courage,
perseverance,

self-respect, and hope; and An Elephant Would Be Wonderful, a book about self-discovery. He says, "To be able to provide a smile on a child's face, a bit of joy or inspiration, is what my book projects are all for learning the most crucial skills needed to be a digital citizen in the 21st century. This is a must-read for anyone interested in learning how to interpret the enormous amounts of information we are exposed to everyday, both in traditional media and online. The book includes an introduction to media and media literacy, explaining what media is, how it affects us, and why we should pay close attention to it. The reader is then presented with a framework that can be used to analyze any type of media. Once
