At least Gwen has plenty of help. Her best friend Lesley follows every lead diligently on the Internet. James the ghost teaches Gwen how to fit in at an eighteenth century party. And Xemerius, the gargoyle demon who has been following Gwen since he caught her kissing Gideon in a church, offers advice on everything. Oh, yes. And of course there is Gideon, the Diamond. ‘Tis the season for midlife love... Ruby Ward is ready for her happily-ever-after. And when her ex-husband invites her for lunch at the restaurant where he proposed, it can only mean one thing: he has realized his mistake and wants her back. She is more than willing to have him. Instead, he announces he is marrying her younger and sexier neighbour. Next Week! Which would be devastating enough, but the honeymoon is in Mexico during the holidays, and he is taking their son. On the verge of spending Christmas alone, she agrees to a girlfriends’ getaway in the remote seaside village of Christmas Cove. Without her family and heartbroken over her ex-husband’s impending nuptials, Ruby is relieved to find the rented cabin is perched on a cliff far enough from the overtly Christmassy vibe of Christmas Cove to let her forget what season it is. It is perfect, except for Simon Ascot staying at the cabin next door with the habit of turning up whenever she is at her hot mess best. But when Simon turns out to be just as sweet as he is gorgeous, Ruby finds herself on the brink of a holiday romance. That is until the arrival of a pregnant ex threatens everything. Ruby Red Christmas is a Canadian holiday romance featuring a twice divorced middle-aged mom, a sizzling hot single dad, and a second chance at love. It stands alone but is best enjoyed within the ‘Tis the Season for Love Series. If you love great friendships, men who are as sweet as they are sexy, and a little bit of fun with your angst... don’t miss out on finding midlife love because romance isn’t just for twenty-somethings.

In this Avery Ayers Antque Mystery series debut, perfect for fans of Ellery Adams and Jane K. Cleland, an antiques appraiser hunts a missing gem while probing her parents’ deaths. After her parents’ deaths, Avery Ayers takes over the family business, Antiquities & Artifacts Appraised, from the home office in Lilac Grove and a branch in Manhattan. Now living back at home with her younger sister Tilly and their newly moved-in, eccentric Aunt Midge and her Afghan hound, Avery’s life is filled with jewels, tapestries, paintings, and rare finds. But their world is rocked when Avery learns that the theft of a priceless ruby may be connected to her parents’ demise. The trouble starts when the Museum of Antiquities hires Avery to appraise a rare, resplendent ruby. It bears a striking similarity to a solitary stone in the museum’s prized Xiang Dynasty bejeweled dragon medallion exhibit, which has long been missing one of its ruby eyes. Now, Avery and her colleagues--ostentatious Sir Robert Lane and fatherly Micah Abbott--suspect they may have the missing gem. But facets of the case remain cloudy. Security guard Art Smith is always underfoot but is not what he appears. Another body turns up connected to the appraisal. And Avery receives mysterious notes that begin to put her life in danger. Avery enlists possible ally Art’s help in cutting the list of suspects who might have polished off her parents and swiped the jewel. Was it art collector Oliver Renell? Curator Nate Brennan? Acquisitions Liaison Francesca Giolitti? Actor Tyler Chadwick? Was the crime impersonal or perpetrated by someone all too close to Avery? If she can’t find the culprit, lovely Lilac Grove may be the setting for Avery’s own death.
