Richard
Swinburne

Access Free
Songs Mission
Praise

presents a new edition of the final volume of his acclaimed trilogy on philosophical theology.

Faith and Reason is a self-standing examination of

Access Free
Songs Mission

the implications for religious faith of Swinburne's famous arguments about the coherence of theism and the existence of God. By

Access Free Songs Mission Praise

practising a particular religion, a person seeks to achieve some or all of three goals -
that he worships and obeys God,
gains salvation for

Songs Mission
Praise

himself, and helps others
to attain their salvation. But not all religions commend worship, and different religions have different

Access Free
Praise

conceptions of salvation.

Faced with these differences, Richard

argues that we should practice that religion which has the best

goals and is more probably true than the creeds of other religions. He proposes criteria by which to determine the probabilities of different religious creeds, and he argues that,

while requiring total commitment, faith does not demand fully convinced belief. While maintaining

the same structure and conclusions as the original classic, this second edition has been substantially rewritten,
both in order to relate its ideas more

Access Free
Praise

closely to those of classical theologians
and philosophers and to respond to more recent views. In particular he discusses, and ultimately

rejects, the view of Alvin Plantinga that the 'warrant'
of a belief depends on the process which produced it,
and John
Hick's contention that all

religions
offer valid paths to
salvation.
Mission Praise

collection of songs to
