

State School Newsletter Upcoming Events

First multi-year cumulation covers six years: 1965-70.

Poliomyelitis, better known as polio, thoroughly stumped the medical science community. Polio's impact remained highly visible and sometimes lingered, exacting a priceless physical toll on its young victims and their families as well as transforming their social worlds. This social history of infantile paralysis is plugged into the rich and dynamic developments of the United States during the first half of the twentieth century. Children became epidemic refugees because of anachronistic public health policies and practices. They entered the emerging, clinical world of the hospital, rupturing physical and emotional connections with their parents and siblings. As they underwent rehabilitation, they created ward cultures. They returned home to occasionally find hostile environments and always discover changed relationships due to their disabilities. The changing concept of the child, from an economic asset to an emotional commitment, medical advances, and improved sanitation policies led to significant improvements in child health and welfare. This study, relying on published autobiographies, memoirs, and oral histories, captures the impact of this disease on children's personal lives, encompassing public-health policies, hospitalization, philanthropic and organizational responses, physical therapy, family life, and schooling. It captures the anger, frustration, and terror not only among children but parents, neighbors, and medical professionals alike.

Online Library State School Newsletter Upcoming Events

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory

The Technology Connection

North Carolina Public Schools

The Essential Guide for Writers, Editors, and Publishers

A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec. 31, 1949.

A keyword listing of serial titles currently received by the National Library of Medicine.

Middle Level Education

Union Labor Report Weekly Newsletter cumulative listing

The Chicago Manual of Style

Newsletters in Print

Identifies over 50 key AIDS information services around the country: (1) AIDS information providers that will serve as mentors to new groups just getting their information service off the ground, and (2) organizations that have special collections or are staffed by individuals with expertise in particular subject areas that are related to HIV/AIDS. State and subject indices. Also include AIDS education and training centers, and AIDS-related electronic bulletin boards.

Searchable electronic version of print product with fully hyperlinked cross-references.

Online Library State School Newsletter Upcoming Events

Newsletters Directory

Educator's World

The Last Children's Plague

Education Directory: Education Associations

a descriptive guide to subscription, membership, and free newsletters, bulletins, digests, updates, and similar serial publication issued in the United States and Canada, and available in print or online ; 1995-95

Offers advice for school library media specialists in such areas as collaborating with teachers, professional development, integrating technology with the curriculum, Internet access, funding, and public relations.

June and Dec. issues contain listings of periodicals. education associations

Food and Nutrition

Dictionary Catalog of Official Publications of the State of New York

Research in Education

Education Directory

Comprehensive guide to literature and resources on middle level education.

A structured approach to advocacy for K-12 school librarians focuses their energy on an active

Online Library State School Newsletter Upcoming Events

path that showcases library programs and resources and expresses the essential role librarians serve in school and student success. • Ideas and templates to help librarians systematically bring library programs into the stakeholder's field of vision • Quizzes to reinforce suggested actions

Social Readers: Promoting Reading in the 21st Century

Catalog of Copyright Entries

Newsletter

Building a Successful Library Media Program

Washington State Publications

A compilation of over 50 reading project ideas, including implementation ideas and examples, helping to promote lifelong reading habits while meeting the social and interactive needs of today's youth. • Step-by-step suggestions for more than 50 projects • Over 120 illustrations • An appendix of reading themes that can be adopted for an event, club, program, poster, or campaign • A bibliography of resource references
Middle Level Education An Annotated Bibliography Greenwood Publishing Group

Resources in Education

Directory of Libraries in Canada

Labor Studies Forum

The Standard Guide to American-Canadian Educational Associations, Conventions, Foundations, Publications, Research Centers

Oxbridge Directory of Newsletters