Study in the Government of

England Before
the Reform Bill
Many histories
have been
written of the
governing class
that ruled England with such absolute
power during the last century of
the old regime.
Those histories
have shown how

Get Free The Village Labourer 1760 1832

that class
conducted war,
how it governed
its colonies,
how it behaved
to the
continental
Powers, how it
managed the
first critical
chapters of our
relations with India, how it
treated Ireland,

1760-1832

how it developed
the Parliamentary
system, how it
saved Europe
from Napoleon.
One history has
only been
sketched in
outline: it is
the history of
the way in which
this class
governed

England. The writers of this book have here attempted to describe the life of the poor during this period. It is their object to show what was in fact happening to the working classes under a government in which they had no share. They found, on searching through the material for such a study, that the subject was too large for a single book; they have accordingly confined themselves in this volume to the treatment of the village poor, leaving the town worker for separate treatment. It is necessary to mention this, for it helps to explain certain omissions that may strike the reader. The

growth and
direction of economic
opinion, for example, are an important part
of any
examination of
this question,
but the writers
have been
obliged to reserve the
consideration of

1760 1832

that subject for their later volume, to which it seems more appropriate. The writers have also found it necessary to leave entirely on one side for the present the movement for Parliamentary Reform which was alive throughout this period, and very active, of course, during its later stages. Two subjects are discussed fully in this volume, they believe, for the first time. One is the actual method and procedure of

Parliamentary
Enclosure; the other the
labourers'
rising of 1830.
